

Lucky Star of Space on Farmlands

Chapter 5 Just lack some money

"Half and half?"

Lin Changhong didn't understand what "half and half" meant.

"Brother, let me ask you, who do grandpa and grandma care about most?" Lin Caisang looked at Lin Changhong, holding his chin with one hand and asked.

"Of course it's you."

Lin Changhong rolled his eyes and said angrily.

"If something really happens to you, grandpa and grandma will have to go with you..."
But!

Before he finished speaking, his face suddenly became darker than ever, and he felt bad all over. He even punched the bed with hatred.

"This Liu Rumei, isn't she afraid of being sued for life?"

"hehe.

Lin Caisang also opened the corners of his lips, smiling superficially but not smiling at all.

"If I really get trapped in the Chen family this time and can't get out, who will know that it was Liu Rumei who did it? Now that my second uncle is more capable, he still wants to make a fortune in the county government, so what? How can we have such downtrodden relatives?"

Hearing this, Lin Changhong's eyes were scarier than before.

Sangsang is the lifeblood of the two elders. They hold it in their mouths for fear of melting and hold it in their hands for fear of falling. Especially after their father has no news, the two elders regard Sangsang as the only pillar of survival.

If something happened to Sangsang, how would the two elders survive?

"Sang Sang, are we just going to let this matter go?" he asked Lin Caisang bitterly.

"So what if we can't count it? We have no evidence. How can we talk nonsense? The most we can do is sue the Chen family for trying to kill me."

Lin Caisang shrugged.

Liu Rumei's family was engaged in business in the town, and later it expanded to the county. How could a family like them be able to fight? Unless... Grandpa and Grandma go all out and go to the county government office to accuse Liu Baixiao of being unfilial to his parents.

In this case, even if Liu Baixiao was extremely capable, he would not be able to serve in the county government.

But no matter how unfilial Liu Baixiao is, he is still the son of grandpa and grandma. How can any parent not feel sorry for his son? You can speak tougher words, but who knows what you are thinking in your heart?

She also didn't want Lin Lu to be in too much trouble.

"Brother, let's do this."

She waved to Lin Changhong, who immediately came over.

The two discussed closely for a while, and then at Lin Lu's urging, Lin Changhong went to eat in the main room, while Lin Caisang's meal was brought to the bed to eat by Lin Lu.

"I found out."

Next door to Lao Lin's house was Ya Molian's house. Ya Enxi just went to his house and found out everything about what happened to Lin Caisang.

"It's the second aunt of the Lin family. She actually tricked Grandma Qiubo into picking mulberries and selling them to the county to bring joy to her sick rice plants!"

He told Ya Molian everything he heard in Youli, and scolded Liu Rumei thousands of times in his heart, wishing he could gnaw a piece of flesh off her body!

"Liu Baixiao's woman?"

It was still early spring. Ya Molian was only wearing a single piece of clothing and her hair was loose. She looked like she had just taken a bath. When she heard Ya Enxi's words, she raised her eyebrows.

"It's not that Liu Baixiao." Ya Enxi nodded.

Over the years, the name Liu Baixiao has become famous in their village. When everyone mentions this name, they want to spit.

"I heard that the Liu family is doing well in the county. I also wanted to give Liu Baixiao a ninth-grade agricultural history, but I just lacked some money. So, I decided to focus on picking mulberry trees."

What kind of agricultural history? According to him, Liu Baixiao is just a piece of pus!
