Chapter 501 I'm awesome

"Hey, Sangsang is back, and Mo Lian is back too. Come into the house quickly, don't get wet." Lu Qiubo felt happy when he heard his granddaughter's voice, and hurried out to welcome her.

"Grandma, don't get wet. I'm carrying an umbrella." Seeing Lu Qiubo rushing over in the rain, Lin Caisang quickly handed over his umbrella and the two of them wore it together.

"Let's go, let's go to the main room. Your grandpa is waiting anxiously. You go and talk to your grandpa while I go cook." Lu Qiubo was so happy that he pushed Lin Caisang into the main room and turned around. Look at Yamolian.

"Mo Lian, let's eat at home tonight. Grandma Qiubo goes to kill a chicken. Changhong caught it from the mountain last night."

"Okay, thank you Grandma Qiubo."

Ya Molian thanked her and followed Lin Caisang into the main room, where she heard Lin Laojie muttering there.

"Why am I so anxious? I'm not anxious at all. Who knows who is anxious."

"Grandpa, what did you say?"

Lin Caisang asked with a smile after listening to his grandfather's words, pretending that he didn't hear anything.

"Sang Sang, you're back. How are things going in the county? Have you found the shop?" Lin Laojie couldn't continue to mutter, and hurriedly picked up the important things and asked.

"It's done. I have a shop in a good location and the rent is cheap. I negotiated for a long time before the owner of the shop agreed to let me rent it on a trial basis for one month. It just so happened that the money in my hand was only enough for one month's rent. , and then tidy up the shop, and it's all spent."

Lin Caisang sat down next to Lin Laogan and told his grandpa what he had planned before.

Yamolian: "..."

Who is the person who has been worried about being unjust to the family? Could it be him?

Look at that little girl's mouth. She can tell even a dead person to be alive. He actually worried about her for a long time, this little liar!

"It's true, my Sangsang is so capable."

After hearing what she said, Lin Laogan smiled broadly and kept praising his granddaughter for her abilities.

The two of them talked a lot more, and Ya Molian just listened and looked at Lin Caisang lovingly.

"Sang Sang, where's Zhong You? Why didn't he come back with you?" Lin Baiyi changed out of his wet clothes and came into the main room, wiping his hair and asking Lin Caisang.

"Have you cured him and made him come home?"

"No way."

Lin Caisang couldn't laugh or cry after hearing what he said.

"If I could cure him so quickly, I would be great, Third Uncle."

"Then why didn't he come back?" Lin Laogong asked.

Didn't his Sangsang just throw the person outside? This is impossible, and besides, his family Sang Sang would not do such a thing.

"I've rented a shop in the county. I'll open it soon, so I asked Zhong You to call a few people over there to help take care of it. Then I can just transport the things there and open the shop. "

Lin Caisang explained.

"So this is ah."

The two of them also understood that they were staying in the county to help.

"You can't tell, but Zhong You is pretty easy to use. You and Mo Lian didn't save him in vain."

"That's right, Zhong You is very capable and will study medicine with me in the future." Lin Caisang took this opportunity to tell her family that Zhong You wanted to study medicine with her.

After that, Zhong You followed her and no one said anything else.

"If he is really capable and can help you, then you should teach him." Lin Laogong nodded.
