

Star of Space 516

Chapter 516 Go now?

"Gu Man, you don't have any furniture at home. Maybe my uncle will make some for you." Lin Baiyi suggested.

Home feels like home, but there is no place to sit at home, so it is not possible. Anyway, he has his craftsmanship in hand, so making furniture is not a problem and simple.

"No, uncle, it's too much trouble for you." Yaguman smiled and shook his head.

"You want what you want."

How could Lin Baiyi tolerate his refusal? He thought that when the furniture was ready, he could just send it to him.

"Gu Man, are you okay now?"

"It's okay, uncle, do you want me to do anything? Just tell me." Yaguman asked immediately.

"It's nothing.

Lin Baiyi shook his head.

"It's not convenient for me to see your hands hanging all the time. It just so happens that my Sangsang is studying medicine now, so I thought, why don't you follow me to Menghuang Mountain and show Sangsang your hands? Maybe it can be cured but not sure.

You see, last time Chu Shui had his leg broken by his father, it was Sang Sang who fixed it. Can you trust Sang Sang? "

"I believe."

Yaguman nodded.

He couldn't tell how excited he was when he heard that Lin Caisang was going to treat his arm. He had heard that Lin Caisang had cured Lin Chushui's leg before.

In the past, many people in the village broke their legs while collecting bird's nests. Even if they were cured and able to walk, they were still lame and it was impossible to walk like normal people.

But how long has it been since Lin Chushui was able to walk on the ground and work, and the leg is still the same as before the injury, which is good.

"Uncle, when should we go?"

"How about... go now?" Lin Baiyi suggested.

"good."

Yaguman responded immediately.

As a result, the two people immediately rushed to Menghuang Mountain, and soon they arrived at the door of the pharmacy.

"Sang Sang, third uncle is here with Gu Man. Are you free now?"

In the pharmacy, Lin Caisang was taking medicine. When he heard the sound outside, his hand holding the medicine paused, he looked up at the closed door, and then started laughing.

"You're free, Third Uncle. The door is open. You and Brother Guman can come in."

After that, she grabbed all the medicine she was refining for the scar removal ointment later, and then looked at Lin Baiyi and Yagu Man who had already entered the door and were waiting aside.

"Third uncle, you are really in a hurry."

Not long after Lin Chushui came down the mountain, her third uncle came up the mountain with Ya Guman. It seemed that he was in a hurry.

"Isn't this because I want to treat him early and he will be better soon." Lin Baiyi smiled and explained.

"Brother Guman, sit here, put down the clothes on the injured arm, and I'll show you first." Lin Caisang came to a long table, sat down first, and then pointed Opposite me, let Yagu Man sit down.

"good."

Ya Guman responded and sat down there. With his other good hand, he lifted up the sleeve of the injured arm, then lifted it to the table with difficulty and placed it on the table before looking at Lin Caisang.

Lin Caisang looked at the expression on his face seriously, narrowed his eyes slightly, and spoke to him seemingly unintentionally.

"Brother Guman, judging from your expression, does it hurt if you move your hand casually?"

"Um."

Yagu Man nodded and looked at his useless hand.

"I can bear the pain no matter what, but now I only have one good hand to work with, which is really inconvenient."

He said honestly to Lin Caisang.

Anyone who sees that his two arms are intact, but only one can work hard, will feel uncomfortable in his heart, not to mention his heart, even in terms of habits.
