Chapter 519 Don't tell anyone outside

"Don't worry, I'm a doctor with medical ethics and I won't go out and talk nonsense." After hearing what he said, Lin Caisang promised.

"Um."

Seeing her say this, Yaguman felt relieved.

After a while, he left alone, leaving a puzzled Lin Baiyi looking at Lin Caisang who continued to be busy.

"Sang Sang, Gu Man, why is this happening? Isn't it a good thing that his arm can be cured? Why aren't you willing to tell anyone about it?"

He was very puzzled. His parents had driven him out of the house in such an embarrassing situation. Now it was time for them to see that their son, who they thought was useless, would still be a very capable person in the future!

"Third Uncle, don't talk about this outside. Also, remember to control Qing'er's mouth and don't allow her to say anything outside. Lin Caisang didn't explain anything, but just warned her Third Uncle.

As for Qing'er's mouth, if he knew that Yagu Man's arm could be cured, he wouldn't have made such a noise that the whole village knew about it.

She felt there was no need to explain some things so clearly. Furthermore, Yaguman's parents would eventually become Lin Caiqing's parents-in-law. She couldn't just look at the two of them as disgusting. She still had to work hard on the surface.

"Then... okay, I'll go back and talk to Qing Yatou."

Although Lin Baiyi didn't understand, he felt that he still needed to listen to Sang Sang's words, so he agreed.

Lin.

As expected by Lin Caisang, Lin Caiqing was so happy when he heard that Yaguman's hand could be cured. He rushed out to tell those who disliked Yaguman the good news, making them envious, jealous, and hateful. go!

But luckily, Lin Baiyi caught her in time.

"You can't go anywhere, Sangsang said, don't tell anyone about this!"

"why?"

Lin Caiqing was stunned, the expression was the same as Lin Baiyi's in the pharmacy before.

"Dad, you don't know what people in our village say about Brother Guman now. I just want them to know that Brother Guman's arm can be cured. He... ugh!"

"Qing Yatou, shut up now. Do you still think the matter is not big enough?"

Before she could finish speaking, she heard Lin Laojie's voice coming from the room, and Lu Qiubo also walked out of the kitchen, glaring at her with a stern look.

"Grandpa..."

"Shut up, it's useless to call anyone on this matter. You, Sister Sangsang, are right. You are not allowed to go outside and make noises." Lin Laogen gave a direct order without giving his granddaughter a chance to speak.

"I....."

"If you tell anyone, grandma won't tell you about this marriage." Seeing that she was still thinking about it, Lu Qiubo slapped her hard.

"What?"

Hearing this, Lin Caiqing almost jumped.

"Why, is this so important?"

Why should she not be allowed to tell anyone about such a big piece of good news and just keep it in her heart and be happy?

"Anyway, if people in the village find out about this, don't even think about this marriage. Have you remembered it?" Lu Qiubo warned her.

"remember."

Lin Caiqing muttered and nodded angrily.

If you don't want to say it, don't say it. As long as she knows the good news in her heart, it's fine. What's more, she doesn't want others to know it and come to compete with her for Brother Guman.

"Just remember it."

Lu Qiubo nodded happily and looked at his son.

"Third brother, you too, but remember, never say anything outside."
