

Star of Space 521

Chapter 521 It doesn't matter if your head is broken or bleeding!

His family had a close relationship with Dr. Lin before. Everyone in the village knew that the two families were incompatible with each other. He actually dared to come to her young girl. She deserved a beating.

"On my way to the mountains to pick wild fruits, he must have known that I was going to pick wild fruits and waited there on purpose. I didn't give him a good look!" Lin Caiqing said.

That Doctor Lin looked so cunning. How could she ignore him and just want to leave?

But she didn't expect that man to be so thick-skinned. He actually followed her all the way to the foot of the mountain and said a lot of things behind her about Yagu's full arms. What he meant was that it was just his family that could afford it. If he raises enough money, he promises to cure Yaguman's arm.

She turned around, raised the sickle in her hand, and said, "Follow me again, believe it or not, I will let you heal yourself!"

It was just a threat at first, but I didn't expect that girl to be so afraid of death. When she saw the sickle in her hand, she ran away, running faster than a rabbit.

Make her laugh.

"This bastard thing!"

Lin Laogong was so angry that his face turned red after hearing what she said.

"Old man, don't be angry. I'll talk to the clan leader about this later and keep that pickled thing away from us in the future!" Seeing that he was angry, Lu Qiubo quickly advised him.

"OK."

Lin Laogong could only nod.

They are all from the same village. If you don't see them when you look up, you can't kill them, so you can only avoid them.

"Qing Yatou, if he dares to come to you again in the future, don't be polite to him. As long as you are not injured, you can beat him to a bloody head!"

After thinking about it, he still educated his granddaughter. A little girl was pestered by an old man every day. Even if it hurt him, he did not dare to tell anyone.

In other words, if he really dares to speak out, it will be fine, but then he will be unable to eat and walk around.

"Grandpa, I understand." Lin Caiqing nodded.

...

That night, Lin Caisang took Lin Chushui, and the two of them went to the house of the old gentleman who taught in the school. They presented him with twenty wild eggs, and then explained their purpose of visit.

The old gentleman just glanced at Lin Chushui lightly.

"Don't worry, old man. Liu Baixiao will never dare to go to the school to make trouble. If he really dares to make trouble, please send someone to tell me. My grandpa and grandma will take care of him."

Lin Caisang understood immediately and said to the old gentleman.

"Well, that's good."

The old gentleman had this kind of worry. Since Liu Baixiao was a man, he didn't care. He could just let the men in the village teach him a lesson.

But the key is that there is a shrew Liu Rumei in his family. If that woman causes trouble, it will be terrible.

"Your name is Chu Shui?" He looked at Lin Chu Shui.

"Yes, old sir." Lin Chushui replied respectfully.

"How many words do you know?" the old gentleman asked again.

"I know how to write my own name. I learned a few more characters with my cousin Changfeng before, but not many in total." Lin Chushui replied humbly.

In fact, he knew many words, and he was willing to learn them. When he looked at Lin Changfeng's books, although he didn't know the words, he secretly memorized every word. Then he listened to Lin Changfeng reciting them, and he also Write down the pitch.

In comparison, if you write on branches in the mud, you can still write a lot of words.

"There is pen and ink over there. Go and write your name and a few words that you know how to write. Bring it over." The old gentleman ordered Lin Chushui.
