

Star of Space 529

Chapter 529 Can you even save the medical fee?

Since the eldest prince didn't tell him first that Lin Caisang was at the eldest princess's residence, it was hard for him to tell her first.

Everyone knew it, but if he said it first, it would mean that he was really looking for someone to keep an eye on the eldest princess's mansion. If the prince really blamed him for this crime, he would definitely not be able to walk away with it.

"General Zhi came by chance. Miss Lin happened to be at the eldest princess's residence." Seeing that he refused to speak, the eldest prince stopped forcing him and spoke directly.

"Really?"

Zhi Lingyang also pretended not to know and asked.

"Your Majesty, I wonder if I can see Miss Lin now?"

"There's no need to meet. Miss Lin is a boudoir. It's really inconvenient to meet General Zhi, a foreigner, so late at night. The prince refused directly.

Zhi Lingyang: "..."

The girl in the boudoir? Foreign man?

Your Majesty, are you sure that your description is correct?

If Lin Caisang is the princess of the eldest princess's palace, it would be inconvenient to meet him, a foreigner. But Lin Caisang is obviously a girl. What's wrong with meeting the family members of patients who come to seek medical treatment?

Although he was thinking this in his heart, he couldn't say anything at the moment.

Lin Caisang was already offended at the beginning. If he insists on seeing her today, I am afraid that he will be completely offended to death. By then, there will be no way out.

"Then what the eldest prince means is..."

He could only seek advice from the great prince.

"It's not what I mean, but Miss Lin said that everything she needs to prepare has been prepared. General Zhi, if your wife still wants to be treated, she will be waiting at home early tomorrow morning, and she will come to your door in person to help you. The lady healed."

The great prince said.

"real?"

When Zhi Lingyang heard this, he was excited.

It seems that Miss Lin is not easy to talk to. She must have been pushed too hard by Jin Lele that day, so she gave them such a slap in the face. It was also his fault for not stopping Lele.

"Then I'll get ready."

With that said, he stood up without caring about anything and wanted to go back.

"etc."

The eldest prince was really angry when he saw that he was about to leave.

"General Zhi, have you forgotten something?" he asked.

"Is there anything else? Shouldn't the official go home and prepare now? Your Majesty." Zhi Lingyang turned around and asked the Great Prince.

The Great Prince: "..."

No wonder Lin Caisang was so angry that he turned around and left. Even a person like Lingyang would be angry.

"General Zhi, please forgive me for reminding you that my father even gave up the gold medal for immunity from death in order to seek medical treatment." He reminded Zhi Lingyang.

As far as he knew, after Lin Caisang went to Zhi Lingyang's house, they didn't even discuss how much the medical fee would be, but they were forced to treat Mrs. Zhi's facial injuries on the same day, right?

"Are you prepared that if Miss Lin cannot cure the injury on Mrs. Ling's face, you will even be able to save the medical fee?" he asked.

"this....."

Zhi Lingyang was stunned by his question.

He really hadn't thought about this problem. He had invited doctors to the house many times before to see a doctor. He always asked the doctor to go with his servants to the accounting room to get a dozen taels of silver, and that was it. This is the case when imperial doctors are invited.

But this time...

One of the girls he invited had healed the eldest princess, had a gold medal in her hand to avoid death, and had a very weird temper.

How such a person would pay for the consultation, he really couldn't tell for the moment.

"My lord, what do you mean?"
