Chapter 530: Calm down the situation

"This is General Zhi's family matter, how could I know about it?" The eldest prince chuckled lightly, put the tea cup in his hand on the table, and looked at him steadily and said.

It's good, I've come to him for advice no matter how much I paid for the consultation. Should I stop the financial affairs of the Lingyang Mansion and leave them all to him?

"I just want to remind General Zhi that Miss Lin is not short of money."

The corner of Zhi Lingyang's mouth twitched, which meant that it was impossible to just give someone a little money to send him away.

After the two chatted for a while, Zhi Lingyang took Jin An'an and left the eldest princess's mansion. As soon as he left, the guards beside the prince walked in and came behind the prince.

"Your Majesty, if you open your mouth like this to General Zhishi, will it be detrimental to you if word spreads about it? Besides, how much money can General Zhi have as a general?"

"What do you know?"

The great prince glanced at him lightly.

If Zhi Lingyang was not a military general, he would not have said this. If Zhi Lingyang was a civil official, he would not be able to get money, but he is a military general, so it is different.

"He has been on the battlefield for so many years and has won many battles. Is it true that all the money collected over the years has been handed over to the national treasury?"

Only one who says such things will believe his own words. He doesn't believe it anyway. Who wouldn't leave some room for himself? If he really wants to enrich the national treasury and tighten his belt, he will really become a fool. .

As for these things, my father also turned a blind eye, as long as they looked passable on the surface.

"this....."

The guard touched his nose and said nothing.

Even if you tell him this, he won't believe it. Everyone wants to leave some leeway in their own hands, including him, let alone the general who has the power in his hands?

"Please step back, and I will go see my aunt again."

The eldest prince ignored him and went directly to the small courtyard to find the eldest princess.

But when he came to the small courtyard, he only saw the eldest princess, but not Lin Caisang, which made him a little disappointed.

"Aunt, Miss Lin is gone?"

"Well, let's go."

The eldest princess nodded.

"Auntie is waiting for you, come and sit."

"Auntie, please tell me something." The eldest prince sat down next to the eldest princess.

"Tomorrow you go and wait outside the Zhi Mansion early in the morning. When Miss Lin is gone, you will go into the Zhi Mansion with her. Although Miss Lin has a death-free gold medal in her hand, that thing is a dead thing after all. In the eyes of some people, It doesn't matter, there still needs to be a powerful person to control the situation."

The eldest princess ordered to the eldest prince.

"Although Zhi Lingyang is easy to talk to, his little lady is very capable of causing trouble. If something happens, if you are there, firstly, you can calm those people, and secondly, you can Prove it to Miss Lin."

"Yes, Auntie, I understand." After hearing what she said, the prince felt it made sense and nodded directly.

Early the next morning, we stopped outside the house.

Zhi Lingyang came out early in the morning and waited outside the house, but he saw someone who was earlier than him.

"When did that carriage arrive?" He grabbed a palace guard and asked.

What he saw was the bodyguard beside the great prince. He was sitting on a carriage at the moment. He had his eyes closed and he didn't know whether he was asleep or not. This man would not come here before dawn. Well, it's really early.

"General, the great prince's carriage arrived at dawn and has been outside our mansion." The palace guard explained.
