

Star of Space 532

Chapter 532 Just don't have any objections

When everyone saw her again, they saw that she had changed into white clothes, and even her hair was covered with a white hat.

"Miss Lin, what are you..."

Zhi Lingyang couldn't help but frown when he saw that she was wearing a hat, a mask, and even her clothes were white.

In the Liang Kingdom, the color white is very unlucky and is only used by dead people. Is it really okay for her to do this? What does it make him think? Was this retaliation for the disrespect they had shown her?

And that's not all. When he entered the room just now, he saw that the couch An An was lying on was covered with white sheets.

"Miss Lin, why are you dressed like this? White is very unlucky.

The eldest prince looked at Zhi Lingyang's ugly face, lowered his voice and kindly reminded Lin Caisang.

The old imperial doctor on the side also twitched at the corner of his mouth.

"Why is white so unlucky? My lord, can't you see that white clothes are very clean? You can clearly see even a little bit of dirt."

Lin Caisang asked the prince in return.

"The things I have to do later require a very clean environment. If I don't wrap myself up tightly, who will be responsible if my hair, saliva, etc. fall into Mrs. Zhi's wound?"

She looked at Zhi Lingyang, who had an ugly expression.

"Can General Zhi take on this responsibility? If you can take on this responsibility, how about I go change my clothes now?"

"Well.

Zhi Lingyang choked on her words.

"No, no, I have no objection. It's whatever Miss Lin says."

How could he dare to say anything? He could see it. Whenever the word 'medicine' was mentioned, Lin Caisang would become extremely serious. Even his speech would become stiff, and he would not be rude to the people next to him at all. Son.

"It's fine if you don't have any objections."

Lin Caisang didn't talk nonsense to him and explained a few more words.

"It will take me a long time later, and I may need a little help from the eldest prince. As for General Zhi, just wait outside the door. Remember, don't let anyone disturb me. If this There was a sound in the yard that made my hands tremble. What happened to Mrs. Zhi's face was beyond my control."

She said pointedly to Zhi Lingyang.

"Yes, yes." Zhi Lingyang responded quickly.

He also knew in his heart that Lin Caisang was talking about Jin Lele, and was afraid that she would come out to cause trouble again.

"Don't worry, Miss Lin, I will guard this door."

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded, said nothing, and went in with the prince and the old doctor. In the room, Jin Anan was lying on the couch, letting them talk in the room without any reaction.

"Miss Lin, how did you make this Ma Fei Powder? It's so powerful. I think Mrs. Zhi has no consciousness at all." The old doctor looked at Jin An'an and couldn't help but say something.

What the army needs most is this kind of numbness.

The last time he was not at the eldest princess's residence, it was because he was sent to the front line by the emperor to support the general. He thought that the soldiers in the army were injured, but they could only endure it because of the shortage of medicinal materials. Even if they were treated, they would have to live. It made him sad.

"If the old gentleman likes it, I will write this recipe to the old gentleman when I get back."

Lin Caisang is also quite kind to people who treat her well. This Ma Fei Powder was modified by her herself and the effect is absolutely good.

"Really?"

The old doctor was excited when he heard her words.
