Chapter 540 Nothing more certain

"Miss Lin, look at me, I can carry my hands and shoulders. Don't you have thousands of acres of fertile land? I will be your steward. What do you think?"

Lin Caisang: "..."

So you still carry something like this?

She really needed someone who could take care of her. She originally wanted to buy one from a tooth shop like Ye Jun, but after all, Jian'an City was far away, and she couldn't come here all the time. Can't stand people.

It would be great if Old Man Zeng could really come to manage her. Old Man Zeng and Zeng Yulang would be grateful to her, and she would rest assured that they would be attentive when doing things for her.

only.....

"That's not possible, Uncle Zeng. You, a good free man, became my housekeeper for nothing. How embarrassed am I?"

Let's not talk about old man Zeng, let's talk about Zeng Yulang. He has to take the imperial examination and may become an important minister in the court. How can he work for her? Isn't this a disgrace to her? ~~See my~~

"Why are you embarrassed?"

Old man Zeng disagreed and thought this idea was a good one.

"Miss Lin, if it weren't for you, my Yulang might not be what he is now. Look, how cheerful he is.

This Lin Caisang was not just a simple 'favor' to their family, but a life-saving favor. If Miss Lin hadn't come to the rescue, his son might have pounced on Yan Jinhua to avenge him, and then offended Hou. House, their family is doomed.

After all this calculation, they are actually the ones taking advantage.

"this....."

Lin Caisang was stunned by what he said.

"Actually, Miss Lin, when we worked for you, we actually took advantage of you." Old man Zeng spoke to her again.

"Look at you, now you have something gifted by the emperor, and you are on good terms with the eldest princess's house. The old man and I, Yulang, are working for you. That means you have found a guarantee for yourself, right?"

He was also worried before, what if Yan Jinhua jumped out to deal with them again when his son attended the Qiu Wei Festival?

It's fine now. As long as he and his son can follow Miss Lin to do things, even if the Hou Mansion is very brave, they won't dare to play tricks on the eldest princess's manor or those powerful people who are bigger than him.

What's more, Yan Jinhua is still a woman who has not yet become the concubine of the Hou Mansion. It is definitely not worth offending someone for her.

"This...is true."

Lin Caisang nodded, feeling that Old Man Zeng was right.

Let Old Man Zeng help her with things, and if anything happens to his family in the future, she will take care of them for them. This is mutually beneficial and there is nothing wrong with it.

"Then, Uncle Zeng, are you and Brother Yulang really confirmed? Working for me will probably be very busy in the future, and it is not a leisurely job."

The 5,000 acres of medicinal herbs and 5,000 acres of flowers that will be sorted out in the future will keep Old Man Zeng busy enough, not to mention interplanting with fruit trees, which will make him even busier. If it was just Old Man Zeng, she thought, he would be busy. So that your feet don't even touch the ground, right?

"Sure, sure, couldn't be more sure." Old Man Zeng nodded quickly.

Zeng Yulang also nodded, "Miss Lin, we have agreed. From now on, my father and I will work with you. My shop..."

"I still have to pay for the shop. I can't get such a huge advantage for nothing." Before he could finish speaking, Lin Caisang interrupted him and said.

It was already very embarrassing to ask the two father and son to do things for her. If they could get their shop for free, would she still need the skin on her face?
