Chapter 542 Choose a good day to marry

Lin Caisang: "..."

She also led someone to do this, and the bullying came to her head!

Now that he knows that old man Zeng is already working with her, and he still dares to come here to cause trouble, he doesn't take her seriously, right?

"I'll go take a look..."

"Get out of the way, get out of the way!"

Just as she was about to raise her hand to push away the crowd and enter the courtyard, she heard a sharp shout from behind, and then she was violently pushed in the back.

"Ouch, be careful."

Fortunately, the uncle had quick eyesight and quick hands to support her, otherwise she might really have been thrown into pieces in front of everyone.

When she steadied herself and looked back, she saw a few men dressed as thugs, embracing an old lady with gold hairpins in her hair, walking into the courtyard of Zeng's house.

"Uncle, who is she?"

"She is the head grandmother of the Yan family and Yan Jinhua's biological grandmother. She is quite snobbish." The uncle lowered his voice and explained to Lin Caisang.

It turns out that she is the head grandmother of the Yan family. It is said that the whole family does not enter the house. Looking at the attitude of the Yan family grandmother, there are probably not many people in the Yan family who are good, right?

After a while, and I don't know what happened, Yan Jinhua's crying voice came from the yard, which scared everyone's hearts to almost stop.

"Grandma, I don't want it. I don't want to marry this useless loser. He will be used as a horse for others. If I marry him, won't I have to be enslaved by that woman named Lin in the future? I don't want it. Working as a maid for others.

This bitch is willing to humble himself. How can you let me marry him? Grandma, don't you love Jinhua? I am your granddaughter, and I will marry into the Marquis's mansion in the future...ah! "

There was a 'pop' sound.

Two voices sounded at the same time, and the Yan family's grandmother slapped Yan Jinhua hard on the face.

"You're such an ignorant girl, you're still dreaming about spring and autumn, and you don't even want to see what the situation is now!" She stared at her granddaughter, covering her face, feeling how wronged she was, and her whole body was filled with anger. trembling.

I didn't see that as soon as the news that Old Man Zeng and Zeng Yulang were working with Lin Caisang came out, did the Hou Mansion immediately sever ties with her?

Even the Hou Mansion knew that Lin Caisang had the support of the eldest princess' Mansion behind him, so he could not offend him, but this ignorant person still couldn't figure out what was going on? Don't you want to make her, a grandmother, angry to death?

"Let me tell you, you were originally engaged to be married to Yulang, but now that you have divorced yourself from the Marquis, stop messing around outside, just pick a good day to get married, and then think about other things. Grandma will never let you go!"

"I....."

Yan Jinhua opened her mouth, but did not dare to say a word.

If the person standing in front of her was her father or her mother, she could still refute a few words, but now the person standing in front of her was her grandmother, the head of their Yan family, how could she dare to speak?

If she showed even a hint of disrespect, she would order the old slave next to her to beat her half to death using domestic methods.

Taking a deep breath, she turned her head and glared hatefully at the innocent-looking Zeng Yulang!

It's all because of this useless weakling. Why should a good guy do things with a woman? He must have taken a fancy to his power and wanted to hold him back.

Humph, he was talking about her before, isn't it the same for him? !

Seeing that her granddaughter didn't dare to speak anymore, Grandma Yan turned around and looked at Old Man Zeng with a smile, "My father-in-law, you see, our Jinhua also knows that she is wrong. The marriage between our two families..."
