Chapter 548 Missing again?

"Uncle Zeng, let's do this. On the day when I give the eldest princess a follow-up consultation, I will bring you all the goods that should be sold. You can find a place to put them first. After the shop is renovated, you can choose a good day to open it. You Brother Yulang figures it out.

"Miss Lin, are you leaving?" Zeng Yulang asked.

"No, I'm going home."

Lin Caisang shook his head. Since they were already following him, there was no reason not to tell them about his affairs.

"I've been out for a long time this time. If you don't go home, your family will be worried. I'll leave you 10,000 taels in silver notes. According to what I said before, the servants at Huayuan Farm will buy all the things they should buy. Come."

She changed the name of the ten thousand acres of fertile land to Huayuan Farm. (つ〇〇〇)つ

"Don't be reluctant to part with those few taels of silver. Also, it's best to have a way of contacting each other with the original people on the farm. You are weak here. When it's time to come to them for help, you still have to go. You are welcome."

"Oh, oh, I know."

Old man Zeng kept nodding his head as he listened to her words.

"Also, I am on good terms with the Grand Prince. If anyone in Jian'an City gives you trouble, don't be afraid of trouble. Just go to the Grand Prince with my invitation. He will not refuse your request for help."

Lin Caisang explained again.

She added in her mind that at worst, she could just repay this kindness when she comes next time.

"You are following me. The most important thing is to remember that you cannot wrong yourself. If you are wronged, you will slap me in the face. I will never allow this. Uncle Zeng, you must remember "

"Okay, I remember." Old Man Zeng responded.

"And Brother Yulang, I guess the Yan family will have to do some mischief. You don't need to be polite to them. The more you give in, they will think that you are afraid of trouble, so they will buy more thugs and raise them in flowers. Yuan Farm, you do things on weekdays, but when you want to be cruel, just pull it out. "

Lin Caisang said again.

There was something she had to discuss with Yu Jing, and she would discuss it later when she went back.

"If you don't have power, you have to rely on yourself to create power. You can use everything you can to deal with those in Jian'an City."

"Miss Lin, don't worry, we will." Zeng Yulang replied.

There is no need for Lin Caisang to say this at all. Just relying on Lin Caisang's reputation among girls, the father and son can get along well in Jian'an City and there will be no trouble.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

After explaining the Zeng family's father and son, she went to Zhifu and took a look at Jin An'an, the first wife of Zhi.

Of course, just like the previous times, she did not see the troublesome Jin Lele, and she felt much more at ease and returned to the Jinzhu space.

"Disappeared again?"

In a courtyard, when he heard his subordinates coming to report, the leader took a deep breath.

This time, he couldn't blame these subordinates, because if he blamed them, it would be useless, and he would be scolding himself. A few days ago, he himself followed Lin Caisang and lost him.

He really doesn't understand, can that girl fly if she has wings?

But even if she had wings, there would always be a trace when she flew, but they couldn't find any trace. In the past few days, the master kept calling him over, and he really didn't know how to follow her. The master told me.
