Chapter 551 When you try it

"After the matter is settled, I will go home first, and I don't know where Ya Molian has gone.

She muttered and returned to her room.

In the past, she felt quite helpless when Ya Mo Lian was watching over her, but her neighbor really hadn't shown up for a few days, and she felt so unaccustomed to it that she couldn't even find anyone to talk to.

"Sangsang, come out quickly, is this thing like this?"

Just when she thought there was no one to talk to, her brother's voice sounded in the yard, with a "boom" sound.

Lin Caisang quickly opened the door and walked out.

"Chang Yi, what are you doing? Just stay away."

She was very happy to see that the rice thresher was ready, but when she saw that Lin Changyi was so close to the rice thresher, especially the roller that was being stepped on by Lin Changhong so that it was dazzling to see, she hurried forward and gave it a hand. He pulled Lin Changyi away.

"Brother, you are too reckless. When this roller is rotating, you must not let children get close to it. If they fall in, it will not be as simple as a little injury."

She warned sternly.

"Change, Qing'er, you are not allowed to be so close to this rice thresher in the future, do you understand?"

"Sister Sangsang, I'm just curious, but I won't do it anymore.

Lin Changyi stuck out his tongue and promised not to lie down to watch next time. Lin Changhong also stepped off the pedal and came over to coax his girl with a scary face.

"Sang Sang, don't be angry. I hope they are smart. They know there is danger and don't dare to get too close."

"You would say, it's not you! Why are you stepping on this when you have nothing to do?" Lin Caisang glared at Lin Changhong.

Although this rice thresher is very practical and can knock down rice, sorghum, etc., it seems to be very dangerous. Children should not get close to it. It really scared her into a cold sweat just now.

"I've already done this, so let's give it a try." Lin Changhong raised his hand and scratched his head, laughing.

This is not because I am afraid that I will get it wrong. If it can't turn, it will be embarrassing and embarrassing, so I have to try it quickly. If it works, I can ask Sangsang to go over and have a look.

"Don't try it now. When the rice harvest is good, you can give it a try." Lin Caisang said angrily.

"I see that the leaves in the rice fields are a little yellow, Sangsang, are they ready to be harvested soon?" Lin Changhong thought for a while and asked her, and then couldn't help but muttered.

"I don't know when the rain will stop this year."

"It should be soon, right?" Lin Caisang looked up at the sky and guessed.

Anyway, it was almost this time in the past. It was time for rainy weather to harvest, and then it changed to bright sun every day. Only when all the crops in the fields were almost dried out would it rain so pitifully that they would not let them down. These people who rely on heaven for food will not starve to death.

"It doesn't matter if it rains for a few more days. Anyway, the rice doesn't mature that quickly. We still have to wait for more than half a month."

If it rains for a few more days, the people's harvest will be better, but I'm afraid God won't give them such good treatment.

"Forget about everything else, brother, have you bought all the rice I asked you to buy?"

"I bought it, a total of 1,500 kilograms. When I pulled the ox cart to collect it, the people in the village were stunned, but no one else had that much rice. I collected a little from this family. It took a lot of effort for the boss to collect some."
