

Star of Space 555

Chapter 555 Too mysterious

"General Zhi is here too.

"Yes, Miss Lin. Today is the time for my wife to remove the stitches. I have trouble with you these days. Today is the opportunity to see the eldest princess. I would like to ask Miss Lin to remove the stitches on my wife's face." Save Miss Lin for having to make another trip."

When Zhi Lingyang saw her, he stood up and said politely.

In fact, the eldest princess ordered someone to send a message to his mansion yesterday, asking him to take Jin An'an to the eldest princess's mansion to gather together today.

How could he not know what the eldest princess meant? Although he wanted to stay in the forest for a few more days to collect mulberry trees, just in case something unexpected happened, he had to obey the eldest princess's order and couldn't disobey it.

"That's just right." Lin Caisang chuckled.

"Princess, please wait a moment. I will remove the stitches on Mrs. Zhi's face first."

"There's no rush, Miss Lin, just take your time."

The eldest princess held the teacup in her hand, put it to her mouth, and said to Lin Caisang with a smile.

Lin Caisang's hands moved very quickly, and soon he removed the bandage from Jin An'an's face. Seeing the thread tied around Jin An'an's face, Zhi Lingyang still frowned.

Seeing the thread, he could imagine Lin Caisang stitching up his wife's face stitch by stitch. It felt quite scary. He really didn't know how Lin Caisang was able to do this.

Lin Caisang took out his scissors and cut the lines one by one. Then he asked Jin Anan to close his eyes and wiped the wound with unknown medicine.

After a while, he quickly pulled out the threads one by one.

"An'an, does it hurt?"

When Lin Caisang stepped away, Zhi Lingyang immediately walked over and supported Jin Anan, who had her eyes closed.

Pulling the thread out of the flesh felt painful just thinking about it. However, when Jin Anan heard her husband's voice, she opened her eyes in surprise, looked at him, and then looked at Lin Caisang who had stepped away.

"Is it done?"

Zhi Lingyang: "..."

He looked at Lin Caisang with a confused look on his face as he put the medicine bottle and all the utensils into his small satchel.

"Miss Lin, how could my wife be unconscious with this scar?"

Looking back, he did not see any emotional expression on Jin Anan's face just now, not even a muffled groan.

"I took the medicine, so it won't hurt." Lin Caisang looked up at him and explained.

Then he took out two boxes of scar removal cream from his small bag and handed them to Zhi Lingyang.

"For the injury on Mrs. Zhi's face now, just use two boxes of scar removal cream. If it's not enough, go to my shop to buy it. General Zhi should know where it is, right?"

"Well."

Zhi Lingyang choked at her words and his face suddenly turned red.

In the past few days, for the sake of Jin An'an, he wanted to know where Lin Caisang was going at any time. He did have someone follow Lin Caisang, but he didn't follow him in the end. This Lin Caisang was really as the outside world said, So mysterious.

"Miss Lin, I care too much about my wife. I have offended her a lot in the past few days. I hope you can forgive me."

"It doesn't matter whether you forgive me or not."

Lin Caisang shook her head and didn't take what happened in the past few days to heart. No matter how many people tried to follow her, she wouldn't let them follow her.

"It's just that I hope General Zhi won't use such a hasty temper on the battlefield. That would be a mistake for the people and the country."

She would not offend her politeness and just stop Ling Yang's temperament. It is very likely that she would do something harmful to the country for Jin An'an in the future. On this point, she believed that she was definitely not wrong.
