Chapter 556 It's time to go home

"this....."

Zhi Lingyang felt even more embarrassed after hearing her words.

"Since General Zhi cares so much about Madam Zhi, he should let Madam Zhi stay in Jian'an City and not crowd into the battlefield. I happened to come to the rescue this time, but I won't be so lucky next time."

Just when he was embarrassed, Lin Caisang said again.

"What, is Miss Lin leaving Jian'an City?" Jin Anan looked at Lin Caisang and asked.

Regarding her husband, she felt that he was right no matter how extreme he was. Besides, Zhi Lingyang was blamed for doing wrong things because of her, and she had no reason to blame Zhi Lingyang.

But after hearing Lin Caisang's words, she understood what was going on. Is Lin Caisang preparing to leave Jian'an City?

"I've been out here long enough, it's time to go home." Lin Caisang replied lightly?

"Aren't you going to stay in Jian'an City forever, Miss Lin?" Jin Anan asked again.

She thought that Lin Caisang now had the attention of the eldest princess and had a good relationship with the eldest prince. He also had his own shop in Jian'an City and had thousands of acres of fertile land.

Given such a situation, she should stay in Jian'an City.

Unexpectedly, she was leaving.

"Why should I live in Jian'an City forever?"

Lin Caisang asked her back, looking at Jin Anan with inquiring eyes.

Jin An'an has always been a silent person in front of her, but why did she talk a lot today, and every word she asked about her whereabouts? You know, even the princess was smart enough not to ask more questions about her whereabouts. .

"Well."

After she asked this question, Jin Anan was stunned.

He raised his hand guiltily, touched his wound, and looked at his husband for help.

"Miss Lin, An An didn't mean to inquire about your affairs." Zhi Lingyang immediately spoke up to explain to his wife.

It was okay if he didn't explain, but once he did, it seemed that Jin Anan's two questions just now were a bit too obvious, and the two of them looked even more embarrassed.

"I know."

Lin Caisang just nodded his head lightly.

"The reason I came to Jian'an this time was because of the eldest princess's illness. The other people I saved and the property I bought were all temporary and not worth mentioning. Now the eldest princess's health is getting better day by day. It's inevitable that my loved ones at home will be missed, so it's time to return home."

Zhi Lingyang: "..."

Outside Jian'an City, he was rewarded with ten thousand acres of fertile land by the emperor, and received a gold medal to avoid death. He also received so many gold and silver jewelry and two shops that were likely to be very profitable. He also gained the attention of the always indifferent eldest princess.

Is Miss Lin sure that these are not worth mentioning?

If that were the case, what would be worth mentioning? No more?

"Haha, Miss Lin is right."

He could only respond in a sullen voice, but couldn't say anything else.

They chatted casually with Zhi Lingyang and his wife for a while, until Lin Caisang intentionally or unintentionally issued an eviction order, and Zhi Lingyang took Jin An'an away.

"Miss Lin, you can rest assured about matters in Jian'an City. Although I have no power, those people in Jian'an City still want to see some of my face, and they will never embarrass you."

After Zhi Lingyang and the others left, the eldest princess spoke to Lin Caisang.

"In that case, thank you very much, Princess."

Lin Caisang was not polite to her and thanked her directly.

"Princess, you still need to eat lightly in the past six months. You must not eat too greasy food. When you want to eat some fruits, it is best to let Aunt Bai soak in hot water first."
