

Star of Space 564

Chapter 564 What do you mean I can save you?

"How many years does someone like her need to sign a master-servant relationship with me?" she asked.

Shou Nu: In fact, he signed a contract with her. From now on, he can only stay in Jinzhu Space to grow medicinal materials and raise animals for her. He is also a slave who takes care of all the property in Jinzhu Space for her.

Such a person also has specific conditions, for example: a person who is about to die must have a strong desire to live; another example is that he must voluntarily stay in the Golden Pearl Space and be loyal to her master for the rest of his life.

And once someone becomes a slave and contracts with her and the Jinzhu Space, the injuries on her body will be restored directly to her former heyday.

'Perhaps, it will take ten or twenty years. ' Jade Mirror was also unsure and said.

"perhaps?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows.

"Brother Yujing, can you be more certain?"

'The slave-keeping contract shall be determined based on the seriousness of the injuries suffered by the contractee, and will be measured by the Golden Pearl Order. I am just a jade mirror and cannot control this. ' Yu Jing said directly.

Lin Caisang: "..."

If you don't even know about Jade Mirror, then you can only look at the fate of Ya Molian's cousin.

Ten or twenty years, assuming that girl is now sixteen, she will be thirty-six in twenty years... Damn, this life is simply exchanged for youth.

But so what, if we don't change, let alone youth, middle age and old age will no longer exist. It will directly turn into a handful of loess, and there will be no future at all.

"Then I'll ask again. If they agree, let's do it."

She took the Golden Pearl Token and walked out of the Golden Pearl Space.

In the room, Lin Caisang briefly explained to Ya Molian how to save people. Listening to her words, the two people in front of him were stunned.

"What's wrong? Is there a problem?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows, looked at Ya Molian and Jiang Zuo, and asked.

"Let me tell you whether I want to save him or not. Anyway, this is the only way I can do it."

"Lin... Miss Lin, even if you can save her, why do you still want her to be your slave?" Jiang Zuo couldn't figure it out. After coming back to his senses, he looked at Lin Cai with a hint of anger. mulberry.

Isn't this taking advantage of someone's misfortune? How could the palace master fall in love with such a woman?

"Damn, what do you mean I can save him? If I could save him, I wouldn't have saved him a long time ago. Why would I bother to go all the way?" Lin Caisang was about to jump off his feet.

She finally thought of a way to save people, but when she got to Jiang Zuo, it became hers, right?

"Did you hear what I said clearly? It's not that I can save her, but... Anyway, I'll put my words here. If you want to save her, then let her sign a contract with me. If you don't want to save her, then I can't tell you. what."

Whether she likes to save him or not is none of her business. If it weren't for Ya Molian's sake, she wouldn't want to deal with Jiang Zuo, a fool!

"Sang'er, how many years will the contract last?" Ya Molian asked.

Jiang Zuo didn't understand the reason, but Ya Molian could figure it out.

This rescue mission, just like Lin Caisang's mission, is also a transaction with a certain thing. It wants his cousin's time to be used for it, but in contrast, it will give her a life. For his cousin to be able to work on it.

"I do not know about this."

Lin Caisang's face was embarrassed, showing an embarrassed expression.

"It is said that it seems to be ten or twenty years. The specific details will depend on the severity of her injuries."
