Chapter 572 Refugees in Hebei Province

I originally planned to open the Yejun side first, but now Weijuxiang has been open for several days. On the contrary, there is no movement at the Yejun side.

"Wait a little longer. We can't go there until we are busy here." Lin Caisang thought for a while and said.

"There is no need to be in such a hurry. The opening can be done slowly. If the second season of rice is not planted, the losses will be huge. It's better here. When the time comes, I will tell Grandma to go to the shop in the county. Stay a few more days and see how business goes.

As for the mulberry garden, it's not raining now. We should take advantage of this time to tidy up all the places that need to be tidied up. Otherwise, it will be the same next year. If I bought such a large piece of land, it would be in vain. "

In short, she doesn't want to let go of anything.

Hearing this, Ya Molian sighed softly, "There are still too few people bought from Yaxing."

"Brother Mo Lian, do you want me to eat a big fat man in one sitting? I have to be able to eat this." Lin Caisang looked at him and said helplessly.

She would like to buy more people, but she also needs to see if there are any people she can like in the dental shop. She selected a batch last time and she felt that the slightly better ones in the dental shop have already been given to her. Selected.

"You can choose a place to do things anywhere. You can buy a good place by spending money, but the people you choose are different. Not everyone can do it well."

"A group of people will be coming over in Jidi in two days. Do you want to go and have a look?" Ya Molian asked her.

"Jidi?"

Lin Caisang looked at him and blinked a few times.

"The Ji Land you are talking about is the Ji Land in the Northern Kingdom? How could the people there be sent here?"

"They are all refugees. Northern Hebei has suffered serious floods this year. If those people still stay in Ji, they will have no choice but to wait to starve to death. They have no choice but to sell themselves into slavery in order to have food and clothing."

Ya Molian said.

It is not that there are no such people in Liang State, but they will not be sold as slaves in Liang State, but will be sold to other countries.

"I heard that the slaves from other countries, with the word "slave" tattooed on their faces, are worse than the ones we bought from the dental shops. Those people are also willing to sell themselves into slavery and become such people. ?"

Lin Caisang asked.

How difficult it is for the people can be reflected in a place like this. They would rather sell themselves into slavery just to get food and clothing to survive. It is so sad and terrible.

"Not everyone can afford three meals a day." Ya Molian said.

"You don't need too many slaves here, but you do need slaves. In the mulberry garden, the work in the hands of slaves is much better than that of slaves. As for slaves, just a few who can move and lift them will be enough. "

"I don't understand what you mean." Lin Caisang couldn't understand what he said.

If you can buy more slaves, who wants to buy more women? Although this is quite realistic, it is an indisputable fact. In terms of strength, how can women compare to men?

"Generally among the slaves flowing in from other countries, the men are bought as domestic servants, while the women with good looks will be bought by people from the land of fireworks. The older ones are most likely to be It was bought by the royal family."

Ya Molian said.

Lin Caisang blinked, still not understanding Ya Molian's words.

"Isn't it good to be bought by the royal family? It's enough to have enough food and clothing, and to work hard."

"Okay?"

Ya Molian chuckled, stood up and walked to her side.
