Chapter 574: One mouthful of that boy

And these people were embarrassed to just stand and watch the excitement. After all, everyone knew that growing two-crop rice was not available here. This was everyone's secret. How could they just look at it? So , they will also lend a hand appropriately, help carry the grain, or do something.

Especially the people of Yacun, not to mention the people of the Lin family, who were even more enthusiastic and helped with the harvest with their own sickles.

This made Lin Caisang embarrassed. She couldn't pay everyone who helped her, and they didn't work all day long.

"Sister, where are the wild wolves in our house? Why haven't you seen them running away?" Lin Changhong looked at so many strangers, but he didn't see those few wolves that he had raised for several months. They had grown up a lot and were able to The housekeeper's wild wolf asked his sister.

"There are so many people, do I dare to let them out?" Lin Caisang rolled his eyes at him angrily.

What should I do if someone is bitten? Even if I am not bitten, the sound of the wolf howling will not frighten these people half to death?

People in their own village were not surprised and did not take her raising wolves seriously, but she did not want to be famous in Yueyaji Town and Qianlin County for raising wolves.

"I drove them back to the mountains first."

In fact, they were taken directly into the pasture space to raise them, so as not to hear the howling of wolves in the wild mountains.

"So this is ah.

Lin Changhong frowned and muttered.

"I was still thinking of asking them to scare these people away, but it seems that it can't be done."

Lin Caisang: "..."

She looked at Lin Changhong with black lines on her head, and was simply stunned by his thoughts.

"Brother, what are you thinking about? The people who turned back were not scared away, but they provoked the county government officials. Do you still want to leave me alone? If the government officials really come, you are responsible for taking care of them. Send him away."

"Then forget it." Lin Changhong said quickly.

They all say "official". How can a commoner like him afford it? It's better to stay safe and hide.

"By the way, sister, I met that boy Zhou Liang again yesterday."

Lin Caisang was about to leave, but when he heard the word 'Zhou Liang', he turned back to look at his eldest brother.

"Do you have nothing to do? Why are you staring at Zhou Liang every day?"

Because Meng Huangshan started to get busy, she didn't give him the machine skills and books, thinking that he would learn a few more words and read those books after he was busy for a while, so that he could remember them better.

"I wasn't staring at him."

Lin Changhong felt that he was extremely innocent and blinked.

"When I came home from work yesterday, I saw that kid sneaking around at the foot of our mountain. He thought he was hiding behind a big tree and no one could see him. I saw it really. I don't know if that kid is holding back something bad."

Lin Caisang: "..."

My dear brother, is it really okay for you to take that kid one bite at a time?

No matter what, Zhou Liang is several years older than their siblings, right?

"I guess I heard Liu Yushui say that I need to plant two crops of rice here. I thought if I learn this job, I can get some benefits in other places. Leave him alone."

She dared to plant two crops of rice this year because of the twenty-acre pond. Without the pond as a guarantee, would she have dared to make such a big deal? It's definitely not possible.
