Chapter 580: Keep having fun on your own

Secondly, she just wanted to test what the two clan leaders were thinking.

Now you can see the difference between the two after trying it. Look at Patriarch Lin. Even though her surname is Lin and she is closer to the Lin clan, Patriarch Lin has not asked her not to teach the Ya clan two seasons. Regarding rice, there was not even a hint.

As for Chief Ya...she really didn't know what to say.

"I'm doing this just in case. I don't want to do a good thing smoothly and end up being a big trouble. Then people will blame me for having a bad idea. If that's the case, I might as well not be busy with it."

She shrugged and said.

"Your worries are justified." Ya Molian agreed with her words.

"I just asked Enxi to go to the Ya Clan Chief's house. The Ya Clan Chief is calling several uncles from the clan to discuss how to win you over to them."

Lin Caisang: "..."

What on earth is the Ya clan leader thinking in his mind?

Wouldn't it be nice if we all have food to eat together and still have some extra silver in our hands? He had to do one thing after another to make Yacun restless, then he would be happy, happy?

"How did they discuss it?" she asked.

"After all, there are only a few people who are as selfish as the leader of the Ya clan. Many uncles in the Ya clan do not agree with his ideas and have expressed their attitude so that the entire Ya village can have enough to eat."

Ya Molian said.

"It's good that they know something! Otherwise, they will continue to have fun next year." Lin Caisang curled his lips and said.

"You!"

Ya Molian raised her hand and lightly scratched the tip of her nose.

"Your surname is Lin. Even if they are really angry with the Lin clan, they still have to think about whether you are related to the Lin clan or to the head of the Ya clan. You don't need to pay attention to the Ya clan. I will let you know when the time comes. Just go and deal with Enxi."

"Um."

Lin Caisang responded.

"Sang'er, are the two hills you chose here a bit small? Will there not be enough water by then? There is quite a lot of land in Ya Village. If you can grow two crops of rice, it is very likely that some people will Convert dry land into paddy fields."

Ya Molian looked at the place where the pond should be dug on her map. The Lin clan and the Ya clan were separate, which was great, but the two hills were a bit small, which made people look a little bit awkward. Compact.

"No, I have carefully calculated this." Lin Caisang shook his head.

"Ye County is dry when there is a drought, but it is easy to flood during floods. I have calculated these two ponds, and they are just right. If they are larger, the amount of rainwater received may be as you think. It is a good way to protect everyone's water consumption, but it also has a fatal flaw.

If the annual water consumption does not reach a certain level, there will be more and more stagnant water in the pond, which will definitely cause the pond to overflow. On rainy days, the crops are soaked in water, and they can barely survive. That's great. If the water storage capacity in the pond reaches its maximum, and the full water washes down, all the crops near the pond will be gone.

This must be taken into consideration. "

Listening to her words, Ya Molian nodded, but at the same time she had new questions in her heart.

"Why does it have to be dug at a high place? Can't it be at the same level as the field? There is wasteland near these two places, and the price of these two high slopes is not much different."
