

Star of Space 584

Chapter 584 It can be said and done!

She can tolerate them if they don't work seriously or don't have enough strength. These are all trivial matters, but she can't tolerate them if they dare to set their sights on Ya Molian.

"Everyone has a slave mark on their face. How dare you be so thoughtful? Do you really think that I bought you back to enjoy happiness? Exile Jue, go to the dental shop and have a look. It wasn't the case last time. I saw a nanny, and now I think it's pretty good. I'll go and see if she's still there. If she's still there, I'll buy her back."

Last time when Na Yabozi introduced her, there was a nanny who was crippled because she treated a servant too harshly at the original owner's house. She felt that this person was too violent.

Now it seems that if you don't be a little more ruthless when dealing with these green-minded maids, you really won't be able to control them.

"Yes, Miss Lin." Ban Jue responded.

He also felt that someone should be in charge of these maids, but if the steward came here to take care of these maids, would it be inappropriate? He should hire a nanny.

"You don't need to tame it after you buy it, just leave it to me." Lin Caisang warned him again.

The people who were bought back last time were brought back after being taken away by Jiang Li. Every one of them seemed to have lost their temper. No one would reply even if they cursed a few times. Her shopkeeper at Weijuxiangli was still After she finally got through the lecture, she felt a little more confident and knew how to do things.

She bought a nanny just to calm these maids, not to be bullied by these maids.

"I understand." Ban Jue touched his nose and responded.

Jiang Li was given a good scolding by Lin Caisang last time, and he knew it, and he thought he would never go too far like this again.

But in his opinion, Lin Caisang's ability to tame people was not that bad, and his temper was there. Moreover, he secretly glanced at his palace master and saw that he had no intention of objecting, so he Complied.

"Then...Miss Lin, if nothing goes wrong, will my subordinates take them down?" he asked.

"What's the hurry? Are you very busy?" Lin Caisang rolled her eyes at him and asked.

She hasn't lectured her yet. If she doesn't explain clearly to the people in front of her, they won't know who their master is!

"No, no, I'm not busy." Ban Jue shook his head repeatedly.

"Then wait."

Lin Caisang took a step forward and glanced sharply at the maids and fifteen women.

"Listen carefully to me. This mulberry garden belongs to me. Each of you was bought by me with real money. If anyone is disobedient and does not work well in the garden, I will give it to you." I won't beat you to death on the spot."

She paused, and her sharp eyes slowly swept over the maids. When she saw that some of them actually dared to secretly breathe a sigh of relief for her after hearing her words, she sneered.

"You must have heard before that if no one comes to buy you, you will be sent somewhere. If you don't want to stay with me, then you should go wherever you go, and I will send you there. No matter where you go, don't doubt my ability, I can do it!"

"hiss!"

Several timid maidservants heard her words and gasped.

They had heard before that they would most likely be sent to the military camp to be slaves, because they had been secretly praying that someone would buy them out so that they would not have to suffer that kind of pain and humiliation.
