Chapter 586 Thinking too well about people

The maids took the order and turned to help dig ditches.

The eleven girls who were left behind could only lower their heads and look at the ground in fear, waiting to be punished by their master.

"Tell me, after you were sold, why weren't you given drugs in the dental shop?" Lin Caisang didn't talk nonsense to them, nor did he ask the ban to investigate, but asked them directly.

Because even if we let Ban Jue investigate, the people who have come from the northern country of Hebei have gone through several hands, so how can we still find anything?

"What?!"

When Ban Jue heard her words, he came over with a scream.

"Miss Lin, are you saying that these people have not been fed drugs?"

This is impossible, right? The relationship between the Liang Kingdom and the Northern Kingdom was not good to begin with. How could the government allow a woman from the Northern Kingdom to be sold here and give birth to an heir from the Liang Kingdom?

What's more, although these people were bought as slaves, what if there were a few spies among them? If he got into any house, he would probably use his own belly to climb up step by step!

How could the government make such a big mistake?

"You, come out.

Lin Caisang ignored the banishment and saw that none of them dared to speak. He directly raised his finger to a maid and asked her to come out.

The maid who was pointed out trembled in fright, stood up slightly tremblingly, glanced at Lin Caisang secretly, and immediately lowered her head.

"Tell me, how did you avoid being fed drugs? Don't tell me, the people in the dental shop will be merciful to you because they think you are good-looking." Lin Caisang asked.

"Slave, slave..." The slave choked in fear, her legs shaking violently.

"explain!"

Lin Caisang shouted sharply when he saw her like that.

"If you don't tell the truth, I will drag you slaves to the mountains and bury them!"

"No... Master, the slave said, the slave said." When the slave heard this, his legs softened with fright, and he knelt down with a 'plop'.

"explain!"

"The slaves and ten sisters were all bought from Ji by a nun. After buying the slaves, the nun said that after arriving in Liang Kingdom, someone would come and take the slaves to the mansions of various counties. , serving the master..." The maid told Lin Caisang everything that happened before.

"Depend on!"

Lin Caisang cursed secretly.

She originally thought it was too cruel to give these women drugs, but after listening to the slave girl's words, she suddenly felt that she was actually too kind and thought too well of people's hearts.

"You mean, there are only eleven of you and no one else?" she asked.

"No....."

"to be honest!"

Before she could finish speaking, Lin Caisang shouted angrily.

From the twinkling look in her eyes, it can be seen that this is not the truth at all. This is just an attempt to get through with her.

"You have to know that none of the maids in the Sheriff's Mansion have been sold. If I find out that you told lies and deceived me, what will happen is beyond your imagination!"

"Four more."

The maid's face turned green, and she was so frightened that she told the truth.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang took a deep breath and looked at Ya Molian.

"Exiled Jue, you go to the Sheriff's Mansion again and buy more maidservants. Remember, disguise yourself." Ya Molian ordered Exiled Jue.

"Yes, Palace Master."

In response to the banishment, the maids picked out by Lin Caisang were imprisoned alone and rushed directly to Ye County.
