

Star of Space 592

Chapter 592 It must be a boy

Another place in Yacun, the small bamboo forest.

Liu Yushui, who had a big belly, was holding a bamboo with one hand and looking at the man opposite Zhou Liang with a red face.

"Brother Liang, do you think the Lin family is too thick-skinned? Why can't they listen to anything they say?" Her face was red with anger.

In the past two days, she had already spread a lot of rumors about Lin Changfeng eating soft rice and wanting to rely on Lin Caisang to earn money as a woman to attend the autumn festival in the county. She also secretly encouraged her mother to go with her.

Fortunately, the Lin family just didn't answer the question.

"What did you point them to?" Zhou Liang still didn't understand what Liu Yushui's intention was. He only cared about whether Liu Yushui had a son or a daughter in his belly.

If it were a daughter, he would naturally ignore her, but if it were a son, he might still consider persuading his mother to bring Liu Yushui in as an aunt.

"Yushui, your belly is so big. When will you give birth?" He reached out and touched Liu Yushui's round belly and asked.

"It's only been more than six months, how can it be so fast?" Liu Yushui also stretched out her hand to touch her belly, and when she mentioned the child, her tone became delicate, so soft that she could shed tears.

"Brother Liang, tell me, after I give birth to the child, can you really marry me?"

"This is natural. Why, you don't believe Brother Liang?"

Zhou Liang raised his chest and felt that his dignity as a man had been insulted. Although he could not make the decision in the Zhou family, as Liu Yushui's man, how could he not establish his prestige in front of his woman?

"Don't worry, when you give birth to the child, I will definitely let my mother nod, and then I will marry you into the house in a glorious way. As an aunt."

Naturally, he would not say these last four words while he was here.

In fact, even if Liu Yushui wanted to be his aunt, she would have to give birth to a fat boy for him. If not, he would have to arrange a small house for Liu Yushui outside and let her live with the child.

Of course, he would visit her occasionally. Although Liu Yushui is not as rich as before, at least her face can still be looked at. If he raises her, she can give him many lives in peace and contentment. He didn't feel that he had lost much of the children.

"Just wait."

"Um."

Liu Yushui believed Zhou Liang's words very much and nodded shyly.

"Brother Liang, don't worry. The baby I'm carrying in my belly will definitely be a boy. When the time comes, you will have a heir."

"As long as it's a boy, Yu Shui, you've been working really hard these days. Your father has made things difficult for you, hasn't he?" Zhou Liang held Liu Yushui in his arms and coaxed her gently.

He was very good at coaxing people. Otherwise, how could he have coaxed Liu Yushui to such a big belly and still stayed peacefully at her parents' house without causing any trouble.

Thinking of this, he felt so proud.

When she mentioned her father Liu Baixiao, Liu Yushui's eyes became misty and tears welled up in her eyes.

"Brother Liang, you don't know how bad my father treats me. I'm so pregnant, and he makes me work all the time. He doesn't treat me as a human being. Brother Liang, you have to make the decision for me. ah."

"Okay, okay, I will definitely make the decision for you."

Zhou Liang responded enthusiastically and patted Liu Yushui on the back.
