

Star of Space 602

Chapter 602 Also a boy

Lin Laogan was paying attention to what the mother and son were talking about, but when he was stared at like this, he felt like a two-foot-tall diamond and was confused.

"She's too...I think she's very ill." Lin Baiyi was also amused.

If his Sangsang family was really that powerful, Liu Baixiao and his family could still live in their village safely. They would have been cursed by Sangsang to beg for food, right? Fortunately, Liu Rumei could come up with such an excuse.

If someone comes to borrow money openly... Bah, then they can't borrow it either.

People like Liu Baixiao and Liu Rumei, who wanted to borrow a second time after borrowing it for the first time, will be a bottomless pit in the future!

"Mom, why didn't you come and call us? What if that woman goes crazy?"

"fine."

Lu Qiubo shook his head.

"Why don't Sangsang and Mo Lian come back? They drove them away immediately."

"That's good."

Lin Baiyi let out a sigh of relief.

"Mom, you must never face Liu Rumei alone in the future. That woman is simply a lunatic. From now on, we will still..."

"Why should we avoid it? How can we avoid it in a village?"

Lu Qiubo knew what his son was going to say and directly rejected his words.

"You can't avoid it. If she dares to knock on the door again, just fight her out. How can you be afraid of a woman if you have a guy in your hand?"

Liu Rumei, who couldn't lift her hands or shoulders, was stronger than her, who was used to doing farm work every day.

"But you have to pay attention here..."

"What should I pay attention to?"

Lin Baiyi was confused by his own mother.

If Liu Rumei was a woman smart enough, she would know not to confront him, otherwise, he would slap her to the sky!

"I didn't tell you."

Lu Qiubo glared at him.

"Why are you in such a hurry? I'm talking about your wife's side. That woman can't benefit from us. She might think of other ways. You have to be careful."

"Oh, yes, yes, you should be careful." Lin Baiyi nodded immediately.

"What are you two talking about?"

Finally, Lin Laogong, who was watching the two of them whispering, couldn't help it anymore and asked with a straight face.

"What can I say, but let's talk about what happened on Menghuang Mountain. The rice harvest is almost done. Next, we need to dry all the millet. The drying ground on the mountain is not enough. We have to think of other ways. No, Lao San and I are trying to figure it out here."

"What's the point? Doesn't Sangsang have a drying room? Can't it be dried directly there?" Lin Laogen said nonchalantly.

On the other side, Lin Caisang took Lin Chushui to the yard of Ya Molian's house, and the two of them sat down at the stone table in the yard.

"Sister Sangsang..."

"Chu Shui, why do your father and your mother treat you so badly? Do you know the reason?" Lin Chu Shui just wanted to speak, but Lin Caisang didn't give him a chance to speak and asked him directly.

She didn't want to help Lin Chushui hide it, she still wanted him to know about it earlier.

Instead of waiting for Lin Chushui to grow up before telling him, it is better to tell him directly. Now that he is young, he can think about things more simply and can think more simply.

"Know."

After a brief daze, Lin Chushui spat out two words.

"you know?"

At this time, Lin Caisang was stunned.

His knowing and her knowing should be different, right?

"Then tell me."

"I once heard my mother talking to my grandfather, saying that when my mother gave birth to me, a noble lady happened to be welcomed into the Liu family, and she also gave birth to a child at the same time, also a boy."

Lin Chushui said.
