Chapter 603 What should I do?

Hearing this, Lin Caisang's heart skipped a beat, and he thought to himself: This guy is really someone who can hide things in his heart.

It's such a big secret, and it's about his own life experience. He obviously already knows it, but he still insists on hiding it and not saying anything. No one has the ability to hold back.

"So, you knew early on that Liu Rumei was not your biological mother, but that Liu Rumei had tricked her and gave her child to that noble lady?" she asked.

"I know."

Lin Chushui nodded, his lowered head looking a little heavy.

"Then why didn't you say anything? Didn't you ask Liu Rumei?" Lin Caisang asked him.

Of course she knew that if she asked Liu Rumei about this matter, it would be in vain. Instead, Liu Rumei would be disadvantageous to Lin Chushui because he knew the truth of the matter, but what did Lin Chushui think at the time?

She wanted to ask.

"How should I ask?" Chu Shui sneered.

"The Liu family's grandfather was an extremely vicious person. He would even abandon and kill his own useless children, let alone me? I don't know if my life experience is okay. At least he would think that I have some use. Can keep my life.

But if I asked, investigated, and let the Liu family know about this, my life would be over. I was only seven years old at that time. If I ran out to live alone, how could I support myself, let alone... .."

"You are looking forward to the day when your biological parents will come to the Liu family again so that you can see them, right?" Lin Caisang asked.

Lin Chushui nodded and asked Liu Rumei, it must be impossible. How could she tell him the truth? It was too late to protect her son. After all, he could hear in the words of Liu Rumei and the Liu family's grandfather, that The high status of a noble lady is beyond their imagination.

Therefore, he could only choose to hold back, otherwise, his life would be lost, and no one would be able to expose the Liu family's conspiracy.

"Sister Sangsang, how did you know?" Lin Chushui asked her.

Except for Liu Rumei, even Liu Baixiao didn't know about this matter. How did Sister Sang Sang know about it?

"I only found out when I overheard Liu Rumei spilling the beans." Lin Caisang replied.

"Since you already know this, I won't say anything more. From now on, the Lin family will be your family. As long as you don't want to leave, you will always be our relatives. I will not mention this to anyone else."

"Thank you, Sister Sangsang." Lin Chushui looked at Lin Caisang gratefully and thanked her.

If it hadn't been for Lin Caisang, he wouldn't have known how badly he was abused by Liu Baixiao's family, right? He will be grateful to Lin Caisang throughout his life.

"Actually, now is not the time to say this."

Lin Caisang looked at Lin Chushui, sighed softly, and then continued to speak.

"I have received news that the imperial court's military recruitment order will be issued soon. You must also know that Liu Baixiao and Liu Qingshui, father and son, will be allowed to join the army. It is naturally impossible for them to join the army."

"What do you mean, do they still want me to go?"

Hearing her words, Lin Chushui's face turned green. He was only eleven years old. However, he soon sneered. What's wrong with being eleven? As long as he could avoid suffering, Liu Baixiao would definitely be willing to spend that money.

"Then...Sister Sang Sang, what should I do?" He asked Lin Caisang with a bitter taste in his mouth.

He was obviously not the child of Liu Baixiao and Liu Rumei, but he still had to fight for them. He didn't want to fight for such a life.
