Chapter 61 Regarding the Qimen Escape Technique...

"Brother Changhong is so old and still goes to school. He is not afraid of embarrassment, but we are still afraid of embarrassment. Brother, why do you just..."

"you shut up!"

Lin Changfeng glanced at her coldly.

"He'er, if you're sleepy, go to your room and sleep. Don't sit here." Seeing that her daughter was talking nonsense again, Lin Yang glanced at her and warned.

"I....."

Only then did Lin Caihe realize that the eyes of all the people in the room were focused on him, and they were all angry, especially his father Lin Baiyi and eldest brother Lin Changfeng.

She was so frightened that she immediately shrank her neck, did not dare to say hello to everyone anymore, and ran back to her room.

"It's not just Changhong, father, mother, I mean, if I can really make money by selling goods in the future, let Sangsang also learn to read." Lin Baiyi said.

"I?"

Lin Caisang chuckled and shook his head.

For someone who has received higher education now, if she goes to school to learn literacy, it would be a waste of money and a lot of time to earn money, okay?

"Third uncle, I don't need it. My father taught me to read a few words before, which is enough. If I have money, I would like to buy some more medical books to read. I am quite interested in that, and my eldest brother is going You can teach me when you go home, and you can kill two birds with one stone. If you make money, you might as well send Changyi to the school."

Turning her head, she raised her hand and touched Lin Changyi, who was sitting next to her with bright eyes.

"Changyi, do you want to go to school?"

"Yes, yes."

In fact, there is no need to ask this question. Lin Changyi has envied his elder brother Lin Changfeng for being able to go to school since he was a child.

"Third uncle, you see Chang Gui, I'm so happy." Lin Caisang looked at Lin Baiyi with a smile.

"That's okay..."

Lin Baiyi looked at his youngest son and nodded.

Lin Changyi has also reached the age of enlightenment, but he is still rolling in the mud outside and helping his family earn money. Every time he looks at it, he feels sad and feels sorry for his younger son.

"Changyi, when dad makes money, he will send you to school."

"Thank you, Dad, thank you Sister Sangsang." Lin Changyi was extremely happy.

After Lin Changhong got the customized ironware back the next day, Lin Baiyi started working at home.

Two little guys, Lin Caiqing and Lin Changyi, were helping in the yard, and Lin Changhong was also there. As long as Lin Baiyi knew something, he only had to ask Lin Changhong, and he would get it right.

This shocked Lin Caisang.

She had studied this wooden wheelchair for a long time, and had to use a lot of paper to draw a rough outline. But Lin Changhong just took a look at it, and he was able to describe it in detail, which was surprising.

"Could it be that my eldest brother is interested in the Qimen Escape Technique..."

Some people are naturally keen on certain things, such as Lin Changhong. Lin Caisang doubted whether he was the material to learn Qimen Dunjia.

In other words, she did not summarize accurately, not only Qimen Dunjia, but also the formation of troops and so on.

Seeing that every time the eldest brother follows Ya Molian into the mountains, he has just learned to hunt, but every time he catches more prey than other young people in the village. Perhaps, the eldest brother should be trained in this area.

"I remember that there are books on the art of war and machine arts in the Golden Pearl Space. Maybe my eldest brother should learn those, but... I'd better learn all the words first."

If you don't know the words, then learning more profound things will definitely be half the effort with half the effort.

"Sangsang, come out and take a look."
