

Star of Space 616

Chapter 616 Killing chickens and cows is still unambiguous!

"You, you guys..."

Chief Ya never expected that the few people he brought with him to gain momentum would fall directly on Lin Caisang's side, thus isolating him.

But he had no choice but to make him regret it now.

But the granddaughter is his, right? Wasn't it because of his pampering that she had such a temperament? If He doesn't bear it, who will?

"Sangsang..."

"Chief Ya, I will make it clear to you today. Even if I, Lin Caisang, want to get married, I will not marry someone named Ya, let alone find a husband in this village. You guys, give me all those crooked ideas. Take a break!"

Just when Chief Ya was about to explain a few words for himself, Lin Caisang spoke directly to him.

"Lin Caisang, you speak so lightly. Who will believe you?" Ya Yuju rushed over after hearing her words, reaching out to scratch her face.

This face was too irritating to her eyes. He was obviously a dead fat pig, but now he became so good-looking. She was even more angry, thinking that she had to ruin Lin Caisang's face!

But, the next moment...

'Snapped!'

A hard scratch fell directly on her face, causing her head to tilt to the side, and the pain made her burst into tears again.

"Ya Yuju, I told you, if you dare to get close to our Lin family again, I will beat you every time I see you, and I will never show mercy!" Yang Lin's hand still maintained the position where it fell after hitting him, facing him. Ya Yuju warned harshly.

"you....."

Ya Yuju covered her face and looked up at Yang Lin in disbelief.

She was beaten here in Yang Lin before because her grandfather was away, but now, they dared to beat her in front of her grandfather!

"What's yours? If you dare to approach anyone from the Lin family again, I will not only beat you with my hands, I will also bring out a knife. Don't think that I don't dare to use a knife because I am pregnant with a child. Let me tell you, even now, I will kill a chicken." The cow is still unambiguous!"

As Yang Lin spoke, he turned to address Chief Ya, and glanced at Chief Ya.

"Chief Ya, you know that since I married to Ya Village, I, Yang Lin, have always been very kind to my neighbors. But today, your granddaughter dared to push me against a rock and almost killed me. If I have a child, I won't tolerate it.

You'd better take care of your granddaughter and tell her not to come to our house. Otherwise, if she gets hurt someday, I can't blame her! After all, a pregnant mother can do anything if she goes crazy! "

"you--"

Chief Ya was also frightened by Yang Lin's words and stared blankly at her, unable to recover.

In his impression... no, this Yang Lin had no impression at all on him. Every time he came to the Lin family, Yang Lin was like an invisible man, not even saying a word except doing things.

He really didn't expect that such a quiet woman would be so cruel and would dare to say such cruel words to him, the patriarch of the clan.

"Chief Ya, don't blame my Alin for speaking harshly." Lu Qiubo saw that her third aunt's anger had almost the same effect, so she stood up and said a soft word to Chief Ya.

"Just now, it really scared our whole family half to death. If our Sangsang hadn't reacted quickly, you said that if my Alin was really pushed out by your granddaughter, and the child in her belly was really gone, you guys How do we plan to compensate us? Are we going to take your granddaughter to the county government and put her in jail or something like that?"
