

Star of Space 627

Chapter 627 The fortune of the Destiny Wealth Star is fake

"Third Aunt, sit here and I'll take your pulse." Lin Caisang waved to Yang Lin.

Although she had a fleshy pad, she was still worried because it was a solid fall. She had to take Yang Lin's pulse to make sure everything was fine before she could feel at ease.

What happened at home was indeed quite bad, but because the people on Menghuang Mountain were busy, this small episode was quickly forgotten. Lu Qiubo and the others went to Menghuang Mountain, and even brought Lin Laogen with them. gone.

Lin Caisang and Ya Molian were the only two people left at home.

"The destiny of the Lonely Star of the Heavenly Evil mentioned by the Ya Clan leader..."

"it is true.

Before Lin Caisang finished asking, he heard three words coming out of Ya Molian's mouth.

"is that true?"

She didn't expect that Ya Molian still had such a fate. No wonder she would be abandoned by her family in the forest to fend for herself. However, these numerology theories were neither credible nor credible.

"I haven't seen you defeat anyone in these years. Aren't you living a good life? Could it be a lie? I mean, could someone want to harm you and let people say this on purpose?"

she guessed.

"I personally checked it with someone, and it's true." Ya Molian said again.

He didn't want his fate to be like this, but it was the fact, and he couldn't hide or escape.

"Then the calculation is not accurate. Look, you have been living in Yacun for many years. Aren't you living a good life?" Lin Caisang spread his hands and said.

"Ya Village... I don't have any relatives."

Ya Molian paused for a moment and hesitated before speaking.

"I used to live in Yacun because it was the same everywhere I went. Here or there, I lived like this. Anyway, it was a mess, and I didn't care.

I never care about people other than myself, including the Yatu family who adopted me, because I know very well why the Yatu family adopted me.

Later, due to some things, I moved out of Yatu's house and lived alone, and I happened to move next door to your house.

It's a coincidence that since I moved here, I feel that everything I do has become smoother. My business started five years ago, and the 'Nine Lotus Palace' also started at that time. Slowly it became a terrifying force.

So, I have been living here. Sonny, you are my only relative in this place. "

"Ah."

Lin Caisang smiled knowingly.

"Tell me, is it my destiny and wealth star that has improved your luck?" she asked.

"Actually, that's what I guessed at the beginning, so I also went to tell your fortune..." Ya Molian only said half of what she said before she was interrupted by Lin Caisang.

"ah?"

Lin Caisang looked at him in disbelief.

This guy actually asked her to tell fortunes. She had never had any relationship with him before. He didn't even say a word when they met. Even if her fortune was really good, it probably wouldn't be good for him. Bar?

"What's the result?"

"Your destiny of wealth and wealth is false." Ya Molian said.

"really!"

Lin Caisang smiled, and it was exactly as she expected.

The rain when she was born must have been about to rain at that time. It happened to be at the moment she was born, but by some strange combination of circumstances, she enjoyed the blessings in the village for so many years.

"you know?"

Ya Molian looked at her in surprise.

"You can imagine it." Lin Caisang shrugged.
