Chapter 629: Members of the Royal Family of the Kingdom of Wei

"Then you might as well not say anything!" She rolled her eyes and said directly.

"Sang'er..." Ya Molian looked at her helplessly.

"Okay, okay, I'm not angry, okay?" What can Lin Caisang do?

Can she really be angry with Ya Molian? Can she get angry in the face of this man who treats her better than anyone else? If she was really angry, she would not be able to regret the meals he had cooked for her from time to time in the past few months, and the clothes he had washed.

Hearing this, Ya Molian chuckled lightly.

"I also know that you will not be angry with me." He said.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Is it interesting to go through all the trouble of confirming with her when you know she won't be angry?

Are you teasing her?

"Speak quickly.

"Actually... there's really nothing to say." After thinking for a while, Ya Molian said something calmly.

"you....."

Lin Caisang was really going to be pissed off by him. It took him so long to tell her that he had nothing to say?

But before she could say anything, Ya Molian continued talking.

"I have been determined to be qualified since I was a child. The fate of Tiansha Lone Star was raised at home when I was five years old. My great-grandfather and great-grandmother passed away one after another. This fact makes people even more convinced that my fate is to defeat my elders. So my family decided to kill me..."

"Kill?!"

Lin Caisang was shocked and gasped.

But calm down and think about it. In this era, it is normal for people who are judged to be the masters of their fathers, their mothers, and all their relatives and friends to be killed. After all, one person's life can be exchanged for the lives of more people, right?

However, when Ya Molian was five years old, his great-grandfather and great-grandmother must have been very old. If such people died, they would not be killed by being killed, but would die normally.

"What happened next?" she asked.

At least Yamolian is still alive and well. A lot of things must have happened in the meantime.

"My family is quite special. If you want to kill a child, you have to give an explanation to many people. My father's foundation in the family was not stable at the beginning. If there is news that he killed his own son again, even if this son is Tiansha Lone Star's fate, if someone wants to take advantage of it, it will be very detrimental to him. "

Ya Molian continued.

"So, after much thought, and some suggestions from people around him, he decided to send me away to a place where no one of them could see me, and let me survive there by myself."

"This seems to be a bit simple, right?" Lin Caisang frowned and asked.

There are a lot of things that don't make sense here, such as: Who put the poison on Yamolian's body?

Another example: There is actually no difference between a person missing and dead, right? Missing can also be considered as murdered. How can they ensure that Ya Molian was really just sent away and not by his father? Killed?

There are many other problems like this that cannot be explained by Ya Molian's simple words.

"Sang'er, I am... from the royal family of Weiguo." Ya Molian explained.

"Wei...weiguo?"

Lin Caisang was so frightened that she couldn't stop talking.

Weiguo and Liangguo had few contacts, and wars were constant. Yamolian was sent to Liangguo, so it must be because Weiguo had some conspiracy.

"That's no wonder."

"I established the 'Nine Lotus Palace' here with the support of my family. You should understand the meaning of this, right?" Ya Molian looked at her steadily and asked.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.
