

Star of Space 633

Chapter 633 A little bigger?

"Of course, my name is Lin Caisang, but unlike the person you met before, I come from a world completely different from yours. To put it simply, Lin Caisang here was buried alive and disappeared. , and I happened to come into this body that was buried alive at that time, so this body became alive again.

Do you understand me? "

In fact, she almost fainted. No one could imagine such a thing without personal experience.

"I seem to understand."

Ya Molian hesitated for a moment and nodded.

His arms tightened around the little girl in his arms, "Borrowing a corpse to bring back a soul."

"Yes, that's what it should be."

Lin Caisang struck with both hands and felt that the four words "Ya Mo Lian" described it too aptly.

"Then what kind of person are you?" Ya Molian looked at her and asked.

The way she talks and the aura she exudes unconsciously when talking to others is not like that of an ordinary little girl, but rather the aura of someone from a royal family.

"Our Lin family has been doctors for generations, and all of them are famous doctors. It has been passed down to me for more than 200 generations. I am the leader of this generation of our family." Lin Caisang said.

"The person in power?"

Ya Molian raised her eyebrows and looked at her.

No wonder her whole person changed after she was rescued. It turned out that it was because of a new soul?

"That's what the head of the family meant."

Lin Caisang thought he didn't understand, so he explained.

"How old are you?"

Suddenly, she heard Ya Molian's voice.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Isn't the jump of this question a bit too big? The key is that it's hard for her to answer this question. What should she say?

"Can I not answer this question?"

"Um?"

Ya Molian raised her eyebrows and looked at her.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Isn't it okay not to answer?

"Well, it should be a little older than your current age." She coughed slightly and said.

"A little bigger?"

Ya Molian chuckled lightly, looking at the embarrassed expression on the little girl's face, she knew it wasn't the case.

"Okay, let me be honest. In fact, it is exactly your current age, plus my current age, you know? That's it, right?" Lin Caisang glared at him and answered honestly.

"Thirty-three....."

Ya Molian couldn't speak any more and looked a little unhappy.

The girl is in her thirties, so there is no way she is still unmarried. So is she already married? still.....

"Sonny, have you ever been married?"

"Um?"

Lin Caisang was stunned, not expecting that he would think of this.

"marriage?"

Mom squinted, how could she answer this? How could she get married? She didn't even have a boyfriend around her. Even if she wanted to get married, would she have to get married with the equipment in the laboratory?

"I....."

"Shh!"

Just as he was about to answer, Ya Molian raised his hand and pressed her mouth gently.

"Don't say it, don't say anything. As long as you can forget that person, from now on, you are just my son, mine alone."

Everyone has a past, and he can't avoid it, but so what, he likes this Sonny, and nothing can change his mind.

Lin Caisang: "..."

She raised her hand and slapped his hand away unceremoniously, glaring at him with her beautiful eyes.

"What the hell, who am I going to forget? Ya Molian, why are you always thinking about these messy things?"

She almost laughed because of him and didn't know what to say.
