Chapter 636: Want to marry me

"grandfather!"

Ya Yulan was so angry at his words that she really didn't know what to say.

"You are crazy, but don't harm our whole family. If you make Ya Molian anxious, he can do anything!"

"What can he do? This is Ya Village, do you think it's his family?" Chief Ya Clan sneered.

He always felt a little weak when he was at the Lin family before, but now that he has returned to his own home, is he still afraid of what Ya Molian will do to him? Even if you give him a hundred courages, he won't dare!

Ya Yulan: "..."

He had no other choice and didn't know what else to say, so he could only stand up.

"Grandpa, just do it yourself. I don't care. You can do whatever you like."

With that said, he turned around and walked out.

"Yulan, Yulan, come back. Where are you going? I haven't given Grandpa an idea yet!" Chief Ya shouted at Ya Yulan's back several times, but received no response and could only snort again. .

"What's the use of having a grandson? It's not as considerate as Yuju!"

If his grandson didn't help him think of a solution, then he would just think about it on his own. How could a dignified patriarch not even think of a solution?

"By the way, I'm going to find Yatu right now!"

Even if Ya Molian doesn't take Ya Tu seriously, Ya Tu is always his adoptive father in name, right? He always has to listen to his adoptive father's words, right? As long as Yatu doesn't agree to the engagement between Yamolian and Lin Caisang, he wants to see how the marriage between these two people is settled!

With that said, he stood up and walked towards the door.

Ya Tujia.

After a busy day, the old man put his hoe in the corner and came to the main room. He saw a son, two daughters, and his wife, all four of them sitting there and muttering.

"What did you say?" he asked.

"Dad, please sit down quickly."

When Ya Jinlai saw her father coming back, she quickly stood up and pulled her father to sit on the chair.

"Dad, have you heard about Brother Mo Lian and Lin Caisang?" she asked.

"How could you not have heard of it?" Yatu replied angrily.

The two most famous people in their village had the same thing happen to them, and they were in love. Now the village should be in trouble, right? Who hasn't heard of it?

Even if you don't hear it, you should be able to hear it from your family when you get home.

"Dad, Brother Mo Lian wants to marry me, how can he take advantage of that little vixen Lin Caisang? You have to take care of this matter!" Ya Jinlai said quickly.

When Ya Molian was at their home, their family's life was so easy. They ate delicious food and drank spicy food every day. Now that Ya Molian is gone, they can only live on the few acres of land.

As for her brother, going to the mountains to collect bird's nests would mean two days of fishing and three days of drying nets. Can he expect that?

Not to mention hunting.

"Sister, what are you talking about? Brother Mo Lian clearly wants to marry me!" Sitting on the side, Ya Yinlai heard Ya Jinlai's words and immediately became unhappy and shouted.

Why should a man as good as Ya Molian take advantage of her sister? She also wanted to find her husband, so why couldn't she.

"you?"

Ya Jinlai glanced sideways at Ya Yinlai, his face full of disdain.

In fact, the two sisters look very similar. Because they are twins, they even have similar voices when they speak. Someone who is not familiar with them will definitely not be able to tell them apart.

"Just forget it and don't think about who caused our family to lose the support of Brother Mo Lian. If it weren't for you, would Brother Mo Lian be able to move out of our house?"
