

Star of Space 640

Chapter 640 There is really no one left!

"Ya Molian, you little beast, it was in vain that I took pity on you and took you home to raise you. Now it's better, you have moved out and you come to harm my family. Is your conscience going to be eaten by a dog?"

Yatu pointed at Yamolian's yard and cursed loudly.

In another yard, everyone from the Lin family came out. Lin Changhong was holding a bowl of rice in his hands and his mouth was still full. He stood in the yard and listened to the sounds outside.

"Brother Mo Lian, what do Uncle Ya Tu want to do?" he asked the person next to his sister, it was Ya Mo Lian!

He was eating properly in the main room, but he almost choked when Yatu yelled at him. Fortunately, he was smart and quickly picked up the vegetable bowl and took a sip of vegetable soup. Otherwise, he would really be the one who choked on his rice. Dead people.

"Do you want to go take a look?" Lin Caisang looked at Ya Molian and asked softly.

It is always not good to be disturbed by Yatu like this. Others can ignore it, but Yamolian has lived in Yatu's family for so many years. Even if there is no affection, it is different in the eyes of outsiders.

"No need, let him make trouble." Ya Molian replied calmly.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Why? Half of the people in Yatu heard Yatu's voice, right?

Sure enough, just as I was thinking about it, I heard Ya Tu's loud voice roaring into Ya Molian's yard again.

"Ya Mo Lian, if you don't want to die for me, go and explain to the patriarch quickly that you will not marry that little girl from the Lin family. Did you hear that? If my family members are expelled because of you, I won't let you go until you find out about your family tree! Get out of here right now!"

Hearing this, Lin Caisang blinked, then blinked again, and finally understood why Ya Molian said, don't worry about him.

It seemed that Ya Tu himself had no intention of Ya Mo Lian going out to see him. He was yelling like this just for the people outside to let everyone know that he was forced to come here by the Ya clan leader and there was nothing he could do about it.

"Tell me, whose girl you have fallen in love with is not good. You have to fall in love with Lin Caisang. Isn't the Yuju from the patriarch's family bad? Isn't she still not good enough for you? What's going on in your head? Why can't I understand?"

The patriarch can like you and marry his granddaughter to you as your wife. That is a blessing that you will never be able to cultivate in a few lifetimes. Now that this good thing has fallen on you, if you don't hurry up, you have to work hard. , what are you doing? "

"This Ya Clan leader is really no one else!" Lu Qiubo shook his head when he heard these words.

He had eaten a turtle in front of Mo Lian, so he let Ya Tu do the talking. Wouldn't his granddaughter be able to get married, and would she have to cling to Ya Mo Lian with a shameless face?

Even if he wants to, he still has to see if Mo Lian likes his granddaughter, right?

"Grandpa Lao Gang, Grandma Qiubo, the marriage between Son'er and I must be settled as soon as possible, otherwise, the Ya clan leader will still make trouble." Ya Molian listened to the words outside and turned to look at Lin Lao Gang He Lu Qiubo said in a deep voice.

"This matter... let's go in and talk about it. Let's go in and talk about it."

Lu Qiubo glanced at his granddaughter, then looked at Ya Molian and said.

Engagement is a big deal. You can't just stand in the yard and listen to the ghosts yelling and screaming outside and just make a hasty decision, right? It must be done through careful discussion.

"good."

Ya Molian responded and followed the Lin family into the main room to discuss the engagement.
