Chapter 645: What a mess

"Sister, what kind of book is this? Why do I feel like looking at these pictures...are they similar to my grandpa's wheelchair?"

He picked up the top one, flipped through it briefly, and asked.

"This is a book about mechanism skills, and the ones below are magic books. You read them first. If you don't understand, come and ask me. But I found these books after a lot of hard work. I secretly I've transcribed it for you to see, but you must never tell anyone else, okay?"

Lin Caisang raised his head and warned him.

The so-called magic books are actually just relatively profound mathematics books. If you want to learn the art of mechanics, you must study numbers. Otherwise, how can you learn the art of mechanics well?

"oh oh.

Lin Changhong nodded as if understanding.

What's going on with his girl? Why don't you just read a book and make it so mysterious?

"I won't tell anyone else, sister, why don't we take care of that person outside the door?" That woman is eyeing his future brother-in-law, so no matter what, we can't let her off lightly!

"That is the granddaughter of the Ya Clan leader. Even if her behavior is deviant, it must be managed by the Ya clan. How are we going to control it?" After Lin Caisang said this, she lowered her head and continued to play with her medicinal materials. .

Just take care of it, Yamo Lian will take care of it, so she should save her time here.

"If you really have nothing to do, I still have a few books here..."

"No, no, you'd better wait until I finish reading these books first.

Lin Changhong quickly interrupted his sister's words. He already had several books in his hand. For someone who had just learned calligraphy for a short time, it was enough for him to read them for a few months. He actually wanted to show him the destiny book.

Does his girl think that he doesn't have to rest for twelve hours a day?

In the evening, Ya Yuju had not returned home.

As the Ya clan leader waited, he began to feel anxious, wondering if his idea just now was a bit too bold. After all, Ya Molian was not someone to be trifled with. He was not from their Ya village, but he only had a temporary relationship here. Just a place to live.

Moreover, from the several times he listened to the conversations between Ya Mo Lian and the others, he could tell that Ya Mo Lian had a big family business outside.

If he really pushed Ya Mo Lian into a panic, would he take Lin Caisang and his family away from Ya Village? In that case, he would be in over his head here.

And if Lin Caisang leaves, he will still force him to leave. These people in the village will definitely treat him as an enemy. Even if he is still the patriarch of the Ya clan in the future, it will make no difference whether he is the clan leader or not.

If it's more serious, the clan elders might join forces to take him down as the clan leader!

He knew that those old immortals had been peeping at the position of the clan leader for a long time, hoping that he would do something wrong quickly so that they could drive him down.

"Tsk, I really shouldn't let Yu Ju do it like this. What if it fails?" He muttered to himself.

Then I thought about how his precious granddaughter was so impatient that she didn't know how to talk to him and didn't come to tell him, so she just did what she said before, right? Thinking of this possibility, he stood up from his chair.

"No, I have to go take a look."

If that were the case, and he failed to give Yuju the final say, wouldn't that mean that Yamolian had taken advantage in vain?

Ya Mo Lian turned around and threw Yu Ju outside. How could they rely on Ya Mo Lian for nothing? He had to go and see, maybe...

Thinking about it, he lifted his feet and walked out quickly.
