Chapter 646 You...who are you?

"Dad, what are you doing?"

Father Ya watched his father hurried towards the courtyard gate, poked his head out from the corner of the courtyard, and asked.

"Do you have to do your job? Do you need to interrupt me to do my job?" Chief Ya was very upset at the moment, and there was a bad breath coming out of his chest. When he heard his son's voice, he just happened to scold him a few words. Take it out.

Ya's father was so scolded that he looked confused and looked at his son Ya Yulan.

"Yu Lan, what happened to your grandfather?"

"Dad, please leave him alone. He and Yuju are crazy about money."

Ya Yulan was holding a book in her hand, reading it, and replied to her father.

He was just waiting to see what would happen to the grandfather and grandson. He relied on his position as the patriarch every day to act arrogantly outside, and he felt very proud of scaring one and the other.

Until now, his grandfather really regarded himself as the local bully of Ya Village.

Well, it just so happened that Ya Molian's matter could make his grandfather and Ya Yuju sober up and let them know that in this Ya Village, his grandfather and the patriarch were not the ones who could be tyrannical.

"Is what was said outside today true?"

Father Ya's face showed a moment of astonishment at first, and then a look of understanding.

"Your grandpa is too confused. Why don't you give him some advice and let him and Yuju fool around there?"

"Can I persuade them, grandfather and grandson?"

Hearing this, Ya Yulan raised her head from the book and looked at Ya's father. The meaning in her eyes was very clear, asking Ya's father: Can you persuade them?

Father Ya choked at his son's words and raised his hand to touch his nose.

Don't expect him here. In his father's heart, his son is just a piece of wood. He can't teach him to be as shrewd as his father, so his father gave up on him.

As for Yu Lan, he was also a child in his prime. His father didn't have much hope, so he looked at Yu Ju.

Fortunately, Yuju is a girl, and she will eventually get married. After getting married, she was disciplined by her husband several times, and she was able to regain her temper.

If this is a boy, what will happen in the future?

"You two, who asked you to fasten the courtyard door? Yuju is still outside, you don't know!"

Just as the two of them were muttering in a corner, Chief Ya saw the locked courtyard door. He immediately jumped up in anger and looked at the two people in the corner with scarlet eyes.

"Grandpa, Yuju has no mouth? Why don't you know how to call someone if you can't open the door?"

Ya Yulan couldn't bear it anymore, put the book away, stood up and asked her grandfather.

"There are livestock in this yard. What if the door is left open and the animals run away? You can't blame my parents later!"

"you--"

Chief Ya was so angry at his words that he really wanted to teach his grandson a lesson, but when he thought about it, he could teach his grandson a lesson anytime, but his granddaughter was still outside and he had to find her.

After giving Ya Yulan a fierce look, he raised his hand to remove the crossbar on the courtyard door and opened the courtyard door.

"You...who are you?"

As soon as I opened the courtyard door, I saw several people standing outside the courtyard, including men and women, old and young, and...

"Yuju, why are you with them? They are...well!"

When he saw Ya Yuju, Chief Ya immediately wanted to go forward and ask clearly. Who knew that the leader directly covered his old mouth and pushed him into the yard.
