Chapter 658 Qin Luoyin

The subordinates standing opposite: "..."

Mistress, are you the one who said that about the Palace Master? If he is really evil enough to drive people to death, you are about to be engaged to the Palace Master, and you will be the first to bear the brunt. Why didn't you think of this for yourself?

Yamollian: "..."

This little girl really dares to say anything.

"You!"

He raised his hand and pinched the tip of her nose.

"Stop the matter on the top of the White Blind Mountain for the time being, deal with all those people in the palace who should not exist." He raised his head, looked at the subordinate, and ordered.

"Yes, Palace Master."

The subordinate responded and continued to raise his head to look at him.

"Palace Master, there is one more thing that I don't know whether to say or not."

"What's the matter?" Ya Molian asked.

"This is Miss Luoyin. She has been living in the palace and refuses to leave. Palace Master, I would like to ask what you mean..."

"Miss Luoyin? Which one?"

Ya Molian's face was a little confused by what he said. She turned her head and looked at Lin Caisang beside her. Her eyes seemed to say, I don't know which corner this Miss Luoyin came from.

The subordinate: "..."

Everyone in their palace treats Miss Luoyin well, fearing that the palace master will blame them when he comes back and finds out that they have treated Miss Luoyin badly. But now... the palace master doesn't even know who Miss Luoyin is?

Who will tell them what is happening?

"Exiled."

Ya Molian saw several subordinates who were also confused. She turned to look at Ban Jue and asked about the situation.

"Palace Master, this is Qin Luoyin." Ban Jue replied.

Hearing this, Ya Molian's face immediately turned cold and she snorted almost inaudibly.

"Is she still in the Nine Lotus Palace?"

He thought that this woman should have left long ago, but he didn't expect that she was still staying in Jiulian Palace. What a coincidence.

"yes."

Ban Jue nodded.

"Ever since she thought she saved the palace master that year, she has never left the Nine Lotus Palace, and has never even returned home. However, she always sends news from the palace back to the Wei Kingdom. These subordinates know it.

But don't worry, the Palace Master, she will never know the news that she shouldn't know. "

"That's right, Palace Master, what the banishment said is exactly what the subordinates are worried about. Miss Luoyin has no self-awareness at all. She almost regards our palace as her own home, and she dares to interfere in the affairs of the palace. , she considers herself to be half the person in charge, and her subordinates want to go around the corner when they see her. "

The subordinate saw that his palace master had no impression of Miss Luoyin, and he had no one to be polite to, so he directly told his palace master all the things about Qin Luoyin.

"That Qin Luoyin is used to pretending to be weak in the palace, and she also has a vixen face. Because of her, my subordinates have dealt with many people in the palace who were taken advantage of by her."

"puff!"

Lin Caisang couldn't help laughing after listening to his words.

It turns out that there are people everywhere who make people laugh to death without paying for their lives. There are actually people around Ya Mo Lian, which is really an eye-opener for her.

"Since Miss Qin is so capable, why should you stop her? Let her use her talents as much as possible. How great. It saves you a lot of things, doesn't it?"

"Well."

The subordinate glanced at Lin Caisang secretly, with confusion written all over his head.

Who can handle such a skill and let Qin Luoyin use it? Is their mistress' head broken, or is she different from ordinary people?
