

Star of Space 659

Chapter 659 He is really stupid!

"Mother, what do you mean..."

"What's the use of keeping someone who can be swayed by a woman's casual words?" Lin Caisang looked at him indifferently and asked.

If something happens in the future, among the people who betrayed Jiulian Palace, they will definitely be the first to bear the brunt. Rather than being betrayed at the most important moment, it would be better to be discovered now and excluded directly. How good ah.

"What is important in Jiulian Palace is not a large number of people, but unity of heart. If there is no unity of heart, no matter how many people gather together, it will not matter. It is just a bunch of people from the market gathering together to have enough food and clothing. If something big happens, who of you can count on those people?"

"this....."

The subordinate was also stunned after hearing her words. '6' '9' 's' 'h' 'u' 'x' 'c' 'o' 'm'

"What the mistress said is that my subordinates have gone astray."

Before, I had been worrying about what Qin Luoyin had done to the Jiulian Palace, but having such a woman here is actually not without any benefit, right?

At the very least, it became obvious after this woman appeared that those who did not really want to follow the Palace Master appeared.

"You guys go down first."

Ya Molian waved her hand to Ban Jue and those subordinates.

"My subordinates resign."

They were banished and they immediately retreated.

When there were only two people left in the main room, Ya Molian spoke to Lin Caisang.

"Sang'er, my mother's maiden name is Qin. Qin Luoyin thought she had saved my life, and for my mother's sake, I left her to recuperate in the palace. However, I really didn't want to. You know, she has lived in the palace for so many years."

That was four years ago. When Jiulian Palace was first established and prosperous, Qin Luoyin was still a little girl. He looked at a little girl who was a member of his mother's family, and when he He really thought that his mother-in-law treated him sincerely.

Now it seems that Qin Luoyin's rescue of him and even his final entry into the Nine Lotus Palace were planned step by step by those people.

It's really ridiculous to think about it. Apart from conspiracy, what else is left around him?

He was really stupid back then!

"puff."

Lin Caisang laughed out loud again.

She said why he was in such a hurry to expel them all. He hadn't finished talking about Baibind Mountain yet. It turned out that he was in a hurry to explain Qin Luoyin to her.

However, she really didn't think about it that way.

"Why are you explaining this to me? If you can't even believe this, will I still agree to be engaged to you?"

"I think these things should be explained clearly to you." Ya Molian said.

The two of them will be together forever. If some things are never explained clearly and are only kept in the heart, it will inevitably accumulate over time and make them feel uneasy.

It's better to talk about one thing and the other, so that there will be no gap between the two of them, and their lives will last longer.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"However, now that Qin Luoyin has been mentioned, we really need to talk about it carefully."

"I know."

Ya Molian naturally knew what Son'er meant, and he knew it very well in his heart.

In the past, I didn't realize that my mother-in-law was a person who cared about his son, but now I know it. It can be seen that there was a reason why they put Qin Luoyin in the Jiulian Palace.

He didn't know Qin Luoyin, but she was able to stay alone in Jiulian Palace for a long time and make it difficult for his capable subordinates. She must have a unique way and be a good person. To those who plan.
