Chapter 660 Do you regret it?

In the past few years, if she had been willing to run the Jiulian Palace under the banner of his cousin, she would have been able to develop her own influence.

It should be dealt with properly.

"It would be nice if you knew."

Seeing that he had listened, Lin Caisang nodded.

"Also, last time I heard you say that Jiulian Palace has been taken back by you and is controlled by you alone, but when I heard it today, it was not what you said. Brother Mo Lian, I think you also You should think again about the people in these years who may be your elders.

Dealing with those people in the light is a very simple matter, just a word or an action, but what about the people in the dark? Often those who are secretly inserted are the most critical. Once these people take action, you may not be able to guard against them.

she said.

Hearing this, Ya Molian nodded.

"I know all this, but this Nine Lotus Palace..."

Halfway through what he said, he stopped talking and shook his head with a sneer.

"I don't understand these things either. I just want to tell you, Brother Mo Lian, if you must go to the top of the White Blind Mountain, you must take me with you." Lin Caisang said to him seriously.

She can ignore other things. She believes that Yamolian can handle it or balance it well, but the top of the Baibland Mountain is really a dangerous place. If you go there, you may really get caught in it.

Therefore, no matter how dangerous it is, she must follow.

"Sonny..."

As soon as she heard her words, Ya Molian suddenly became anxious.

How could he take Sonny to the top of the White Blind Mountain? It would be better to kill him.

"Brother Molian, listen to me."

Ya Molian's unsaid words were interrupted by Lin Caisang raising his hand.

"I have my own considerations. I finally have a chance to live my life again. Naturally, I will not put myself in danger. This is what I think. If you really want to go to the top of the White Blind Mountain, then I will We're going to pick up a mission, and the two of us will go from the mission location to the top of the White Blind Mountain.

In this way, even if we encounter danger, the two of us can come back smoothly. When we think of a countermeasure, we can then go to the top of the White Blind Mountain to save people or eliminate the dangerous thing, don't you think?

But if you go alone and you encounter danger, you won't be able to notify the people at the bottom of the mountain. I don't know where you are in danger and have an accident. You don't know how to save people even if you want to. Think about it, when the time comes How anxious should I be if I can't see you? "

She told him everything in her heart in one breath.

After listening to her words, Ya Molian sighed softly, stretched out his long arms, and pulled her into his arms.

"I thought that by marrying you in the future, I would cherish you and protect you all my life, but I never thought that before we were engaged, you would have to worry about me so much. I thought too wonderfully."

"Do you regret it?"

Lin Caisang raised his head and asked him.

"Nonsense, how could I regret it!"

Ya Molian raised her hand, lightly scratched the tip of her nose, and scolded her lightly.

Even if the sky fell and the earth fell, and the mountains and rivers flowed backwards, he would not regret falling in love with her this time. As long as she was by his side, he would realize that all these years were not in vain.

He went through so much pain just to meet Sonny now. His life was really worth it.

"As long as you don't regret it, then let's make an agreement. If you really want to go to the top of the Baibland Mountain, you must not leave me behind." Lin Caisang said.

"good....."
