

Star of Space 661

Chapter 661 Still a little girl!

Before Ya Mo Lian could finish answering the word "good", the two of them heard a muffled sound coming from the yard, as well as the voices of Ban Jue and several other people.

"what's the situation?"

Lin Caisang stood up from his legs and looked out the door.

"Go and have a look." Ya Molian took her hand and walked out.

When the two of them arrived in the yard, they saw that Ban Jue and others were already standing in the yard. Several men were looking at a group of things on the ground in the yard and muttering.

"Tsk, she's still a little girl!"

One of them bent down and turned the person over. Under the moonlight, they saw that it was a little girl who was so hungry that her face was yellow and skinny.

"How could a little girl come to this deep mountain?" Ban Jue couldn't help but wonder.

Did a little girl take the courage of a leopard this late at night and dare to run into the mountains? Is she not afraid of being snatched away by a wild beast?

Moreover, although he had never shown his face in Yacun, he still knew exactly who was in the village. This face was so unfamiliar that he had never seen it before.

"what happened?"

Lin Caisang and Ya Molian came over and asked.

"The master of the palace, the mistress, is a little girl. She accidentally wandered into the vicinity of our bamboo house. The subordinates thought she was a trick, so they knocked her unconscious with one palm. A subordinate replied to the two of them.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Can Xizuo run into the yard openly? He must be hiding secretly outside.

"Put her in the main room first, and then wake her up." She said to several people.

"yes."

In response, Ban Jue directly picked up the little girl by her collar and carried her directly into the main room, leaving Lin Caisang behind him dumbfounded.

Why did I feel like the little girl was as skinny as a rabbit when I looked at the way he was carrying the little girl? This ancient man was so strong.

No wonder Yamo Lianti could fly freely in mid-air when she was as fat as a wild boar.

...

After a while, the little girl woke up. Seeing so many people staring at her, she screamed in fright and shrank into a corner to hide.

"Don't... don't catch me, don't catch me."

Lin Caisang looked sideways speechlessly, looking at Ya Molian, and then at the banished ones.

When did they arrest her? She obviously broke in on her own. What does it have to do with them? Executing a few of them was very innocent. Is it really right to pity who in these days?

"Little girl, you came to our place by yourself, don't you remember?" Ban Jue reminded her.

The little girl was so frightened that she huddled in the corner, staring at Ya Molian and the others with her frightened eyes, muttering to herself.

"She was probably overly frightened and confused, and she didn't even know what she was saying or doing." Lin Caisang said.

With that said, she took out the silver needle bag from her shoulder bag, took out one and went to the little girl's side, gave her a needle, and then turned back to look at Ya Molian.

"Brother Mo Lian, she is not from Ya Village, she should be from another village."

"Um."

Ya Molian also nodded.

Since he is not from Ya Village, why are he here? If he came from another village, how could he escape here in the middle of the night? It is simply impossible.

"Even people from Ya Village rarely come to this place, let alone people from other villages. It's absolutely impossible." He said.