Chapter 663 Not everything is as expected

"Are you talking about Liu Baixiao?" she asked.

"No, no, it's... it's Liu Rumei." Feng Luzhi replied in a low voice.

She thought to herself that this was the end for her. She finally escaped and met a few people who knew the Liu family. They wouldn't send her back, right? If that were the case, she might as well have died.

"Liu Rumei? Damn, what did she buy you for?" Lin Caisang really smiled.

When Liu Rumei bought a little maid, was it to serve her son or her husband-in-law? She probably wouldn't be the former. As Liu Rumei was so discerning, could she buy a little maid to be her son's wife?

Moreover, even if she had this idea, it couldn't be now. Could it be that she couldn't stand being ordered around by Liu Baixiao, so she bought a maid to serve Liu Baixiao?

This shouldn't be possible, right?

"She...she...it was inconvenient for her daughter to be pregnant, so she bought me to serve...to serve her uncle." Feng Luzhi lowered his head and replied in a very low voice.

"Ahem, ahem."

Lin Caisang choked at her words.

Liu Rumei's uncle, isn't that Zhou Liang? This little girl was bought by Liu Rumei to serve Zhou Liang...

These days, anything can really happen, especially in the Liu family. It really refreshes her understanding of the word shameless. Does this family have a bottom line?

"Sonny.

Seeing her like this, Ya Molian quickly patted her back to comfort her.

"I was just talking about how Liu Yushui made her fetus unstable. It turns out that's really what happened. These mother and daughter are really willing to do anything for the sake of glory and wealth!"

Lin Caisang gritted his teeth and said bitterly.

Zhou Liang is a scumbag who can even ignore his own children. Even if Liu Yushui marries into the Zhou family in the future, will Zhou Liang be good to her?

Poor mother and daughter are still counting on Zhou Liang to turn them around. What a daydream!

"Then how did you escape?" she asked Feng Luzhi.

Feng Luzhi told Lin Caisang everything that happened at Liu's house today, including the conversation between Liu Rumei and her daughter.

"These two women are really..."

Lin Caisang was so angry at Liu Rumei and Liu Yushui.

It's only been a few months, and they actually dug up other people's sweet potatoes, and dug so many at once. Isn't this not letting people survive? Everyone lives on those acres of land.

Life is already tight, but now we have Liu Rumei, a mother and daughter who are greedy for stealing. I'm afraid the entire Ya Village will be stolen by them in the future, right?

"Brother Mo Lian, this matter..."

"I'll help someone take care of it." Ya Molian said before she could finish.

"It was a mistake to keep Liu Baixiao's family here." Lin Caisang said with a sigh.

But what can she do if she doesn't stay? She can't decide whether to let the family stay or not. The key lies in her grandpa Lin Laogeng.

She can't disobey her grandfather, right?

"Things in this world are not as perfect as one wishes."

Ya Molian raised her hand, stroked her head gently and said.

Just like on his side, even if he wanted to deal with Chief Ya's family immediately, the fact was before his eyes. If Chief Ya's family disappeared, he and Sang'er's family would also be implicated.

It's all the same.
