Chapter 668: It's not a thing anymore

Why did she say at that time that she didn't expect such serious consequences?

It's fine now. It's too late to regret. I can only wait for those people to come to my door. What should I do?

"Yushui, what do you think we should do? What should we do?"

"What did I think it was?"

When Liu Yushui heard what she said, she knew that her mother was just guilty of being a thief and was scaring herself. She immediately gave Liu Rumei a blank look.

"Mom, you are too caring. If people are suspicious, let others be suspicious. We don't have sweet potatoes at home, and no one saw that you dug them. If you don't admit it, who can point to you and say that you dug them? ah?"

"this....."

Liu Rumei was stunned by what she said. Looking back, it seemed that this was really the case.

"But that little bitch ran away. If she..."

Thinking of Feng Luzhi's previous escape, she was still afraid. What if she escaped to some other house and the incident of stealing sweet potatoes was revealed? What should she do?

"She ate it herself, and she wouldn't dare to say anything outside if she had a hundred courages." Liu Yushui chuckled lightly and said.

"Besides, that dead girl finally escaped from our house, how could she dare to come and have anything to do with us? She's not looking for death, she doesn't dare."

If that dead girl really dared to come to trouble them, it was just right to take her down directly, which would save her from not knowing what to do the next time Zhou Liang came to see her.

"By the way, mother, what did you and Zhou Liang say? What did he say?" she asked.

"Zhou Liang!"

When Zhou Liang was mentioned, Liu Rumei's face darkened and she became angry.

"That bastard boy is nothing anymore. Let me tell you, after you marry into his family, you must keep your money firmly in your own hands. Do you understand?"

She pointed out to Liu Yushui.

It wasn't until this moment that she realized that her husband and children were all unreliable. Only money was the most reliable thing. She regretted it now. Why did she spend her money on a girl? , all wasted.

If she hadn't bought that Feng Luzhi, then at least she would still have some money in her hand and be able to eat a few full meals.

Unlike now, I can only count on that unreliable bastard Zhou Liang.

"What do you mean, he provoked you?" Liu Yushui asked.

She has all the money in her own hands. Does her mother need to remind her of this? She knows very well.

"Look, look what he did for me. I'm his mother-in-law. This kid is so rebellious that he even dares to do something to me!" Liu Rumei pointed at the dirt on her face and body and said to Liu Yushui .

Hearing this, Liu Yushui sneered.

"Mom, we are no longer members of the Liu family. If I hadn't still carried one in my belly, would Zhou Liang care who we are? You should be thankful that you can still see him now."

Hearing that her mother was beaten, she finally felt a little more balanced. At least, Zhou Liang didn't dare to do anything to her, but he persuaded her with kind words. Compared with her mother, Zhou Liang was pretty good to her. of.

"you....."

Liu Rumei was furious when she heard what she said.

"You girl, my mother's love for you is in vain."

She was beaten by her son-in-law, but her daughter actually didn't help her and even spoke for Zhou Liang.

It seems that only money is the most reliable. Everyone else is unreliable. She can only count on herself in the future.
