Chapter 676 An 'important' thing

"Okay, Patriarch, I really don't know how to thank you.

After hearing what he said, Yaji was so happy that he couldn't find anything to do with the east, west, east, west, and west, and he responded fluently.

Chief Ya looked at him and snorted in his heart. He wanted to be the leader of his tribe. Such a fool didn't care how much he weighed. He was just using him to deal with Ya Molian and Lin Caisang. .

Those two little guys dared to treat him like this. He would make it impossible for them to survive in Ya Village and be driven out of the village by the people of Ya Village!

At that time, as long as Ya Mo Lian leaves, his two people who were sent to keep an eye on their family will naturally leave, and he will be free. When that time comes, those people in the Ya clan who look down on him will be free. I will settle accounts with them one by one!

The next day, Patriarch Lin and Uncle Li Zhengjin came to the Lin family again with several clan elders. According to what Patriarch Ya said, the step elder had a chance encounter with Patriarch Lin and the others.

Even Clan Chief Lin and Uncle Li Zhengjin didn't take him seriously, and the other elders of the Ya clan even pretended not to see him. He just licked his face and talked to everyone, and just followed Lin. Go home to pick mulberry trees.

Needless to say anything else, Uncle Li Zhengjin handed the pieces of paper he had scrawled in front of Lin Caisang and asked her to take a look at whether the rules he thought of were appropriate.

"Uncle Jin, this is well written. If we act this way, some people in the village won't be able to cause trouble even if they want to." Lin Caisang looked at the rules with a smile, and occasionally raised his eyes to glance at Uncle Jin. .

"I don't have any credit for this. Most of it was the idea of Patriarch Lin." Uncle Li Zhengjin replied.

"Sang Sang, look if there is anything missing. If you want to make up for it, just tell me and Uncle Jin will make it up for you right away."

"No."

Lin Caisang shook his head.

"This is careful enough. I can't think of anything else no matter how much I think about it, so let's just do it like this."

Being older has its advantages after all. She can think of many places that she would not have thought of. For example, it is written here that in order to avoid conflicts between the Ya family and the Lin family, they carry water at two points every day and pick up water every other day. Change it up.

In this case, no one needs to feel unfair. Anyway, by the next day, they will be the same as people from another tribe.

"Well."

Uncle Li Zhengjin nodded.

"Sang Sang, then Uncle Jin will just follow what is written above?"

he asks.

"OK."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"Uncle Jin..."

"cough!"

She was about to say that she could just follow Uncle Li Zhengjin's words, but she heard Patriarch Lin cough heavily and turned her head. She looked at Patriarch Lin in confusion and blinked.

Is there anything else here that she has forgotten? It seems...no?

"Li Zheng, did you forget an 'important' thing and didn't mention it to Sangsang?" Patriarch Lin looked at Uncle Li Zhengjin and deliberately emphasized the word 'important'.

"Well."

Uncle Li Zhengjin choked, and after a while he remembered that there was indeed one thing he had not mentioned to Sang Sang, and he quickly slapped his forehead.

"Look at my memory, I have forgotten such an important thing. Sangsang, this barren mountain is yours, and this water cannot be used in vain. We are all discussing who wants to use the water from your barren mountain. Water means money. Look, how much money can each household get? "

"this....."

"Li Zheng, Chief Lin, Sangsang and I discussed this matter early in the morning."
