Chapter 68 Awesome, right? My Sangsang came up with it

"Grandpa Lin is worried, they can't do anything to me yet.

Ya Molian said something and looked at Lin Changhong.

"Changhong, where is your prey? Go get it and let's go to town together. Go early and come back early."

"good."

Lin Changhong responded.

"Grandpa, Brother Molian and I went to town. Let Sangsang and Third Uncle accompany you around. Sangsang, please stay away from walking today and go home for dinner later. Don't be hungry. "

"Um."

Lin Caisang responded, came behind Lin Laogan, pushed the wheelchair out of the yard of Ya Molian's house, and Lin Baiyi followed closely.

"Hey, Changhong, what's up with this chair in your house? It has wheels. I didn't see it just now." Ya Enxi was surprised when she saw that the chair Lin Laogan was sitting on could still roll.

"Is it awesome? My Sangsang came up with it, but it took a lot of effort to do it." Lin Changhong raised his head proudly and asked.

"Go ahead and show off, as long as your girl can do it, okay?"

Ya Enxi rolled her eyes at Lin Changhong angrily. This little guy may not look big, but he is a maniac about showing off his girls. He puts his girls on his lips all day long, and he is not afraid that others will get tired of hearing about them.

"That's right, if my family can't stand it, who can?" Lin Changhong felt that this was a matter of course.

Ya Enxi looked at him and could only shake her head, but she still glanced at the back of Lin Caisang pushing Lin Laojie slowly away, "This chair is really good, it must have cost a lot of money, right? No wonder you guys are these days Isn't it all spent on this chair when it comes to hunting missions?"

He looked at the iron pieces on top, and it looked like there were quite a few.

"It's for grandpa, no matter how much money you spend, it's worth it." Lin Changhong said.

"Brother Melian, wait for me. I'll get the prey and we can go to town together."

"Well, go ahead."

Ya Molian withdrew her gaze from Lin Caisang and said something to him.

...

When Lin Changhong came back from the town, it was almost dark. Ya Molian and the others had already come back long ago, and he was the last to come back.

When he returned to his yard, he went to grab a spoonful of cold water to drink, but Lin Caisang looked at him and scolded him.

He curled his lips before going to the main room to get some cold drinks.

"Sang Sang, I went to inquire about it just now. The Zhou family has been very troubled by Liu Rumei in the past few days. Now their neighbors know that their family has abandoned our poor relatives and married a high-class family like the Liu family. Fang is the one who climbs up the ladder and takes down the low."

He wiped the water stains around his mouth with his sleeve and said to Lin Caisang.

"The official job that my second uncle Xiao Xiang wanted is over. Liu Rumei has no time these days because of the commotion at Zhou's house. She has been busy with the second uncle's affairs." He approached Lin Caisang and lowered his voice to her. Talking quietly.

Although the Zhou family was relieved, which they were not happy to see, he knew that the last thing Sang Sang wanted to see was for Liu Baixiao to become an official.

If Liu Baixiao really gained power, then their family's life would be even more difficult.

"You have to keep a close eye on her and don't give Liu Rumei a chance to stand up."

Lin Caisang thought for a while and pulled Lin Changhong to a corner of the yard, and the two began to whisper.

"What else do you have in mind?" Lin Changhong asked.

"In this way, you reveal the news that the Chen family wants to bury me alive, and tell those people that it was the servants of the Liu Rumei family who told you, saying that Liu Rumei asked us to report to the official, and wanted to blackmail the Chen family for a sum of money. , paving the way for Liu Baixiao to become an official."

Lin Caisang said.
