

Star of Space 680

Chapter 680 No matter how small the mosquito is, it still has flesh.

"puff!"

Lin Caisang couldn't help laughing after hearing her words.

"Grandpa, grandma, look at Qing'er, this will all be settled. When you get married, you will definitely be able to keep the house in order, don't you think?" She looked at Lin Laogan and Lu Qiubo, teased.

"yes."

Lu Qiubo chuckled and nodded.

"Grandma, why are you following Sister Sang Sang's words? Isn't it for Sister Sang Sang's sake?" Lin Caiqing was teased by the family. She suddenly blushed and argued with her mouth flat.

"Grandma knows that you are doing it for your sister Sangsang's benefit, but..." Lu Qiubo stopped the smile on his face and looked at Lin Caiqing seriously.

"Qing Yatou, when we think about things, we can't just think about things on the surface. We have to think about things at a deeper level. Should we accept the money, and how should we spend it after accepting it? There are things to pay attention to."

"What's the point?"

Lin Caiqing didn't understand and asked.

"First of all, Sangsang is not short of money now. This little money is nothing." Lu Qiubo said to Lin Caiqing.

"No matter how small the mosquito is, it still has flesh." Lin Caiqing asked.

Lu Qiubo: "..."

Why hadn't she noticed before that her granddaughter was actually a very calculating little girl?

It's really cheap! Yagu is full!

"No matter how little money you have, you still have to earn it, but it still depends on what kind of money it is." Lu Qiubo said.

"Is Sister Sangsang earning illegal money?"

After hearing Lu Qiubo's words, Lin Caiqing was even more confused.

Since the people in the village need water, and there is water in Sister Sang Sang's Menghuang Mountain, can it be given to them for free? This is of course impossible.

So isn't it normal for them to collect cash? Why did it turn out to be money that shouldn't be collected in Grandma's eyes?

"You kid, you are all obsessed with money!" Lu Qiubo sighed helplessly.

"Qing'er, if I take this money, it's not impossible."

Lin Caisang took over what his grandma said and looked at Lin Caiqing with a smile.

"But, you have to think about it, these are the silver that every household has saved from their fingers. They are naturally willing to give it out for water. However, if the water is used up, the food harvest will be good. What happens after that?"

"What happened next?"

Lin Caiqing still didn't understand.

Didn't they do a great thing? Let everyone in the village have access to water and no longer have to worry about chewing bark and digging roots.

Afterwards, they were naturally extremely grateful to Sister Sangsang. What else could they do?

"Qing Yatou, Qing Yatou, it's just that simple. If someone bullies you in the future, you still don't know what's going on." Lin Laogeng looked at his granddaughter and said angrily.

"Qing'er, Sister Sangsang and I, not everyone in the village is very kind to me, such as the family of the Ya clan chief, or after I got engaged to Brother Molian, the Yatu family must be I will hold a grudge."

Lin Caisang reminded her.

"Also in the early spring of this year, I was almost pushed into scalding boiling water by Jinghong's wife. Have you forgotten all this?"

Of course, she didn't dare to say it. In fact, the people who were most likely to gossip about her in the village and ruin her reputation were Liu Baixiao's family. Although the Ya clan leader and his family had a grudge against her, after all, there were people watching, so they couldn't make a fuss. Something big is coming.

But Liu Baixiao's family is different.
