

Star of Space 684

Chapter 684 I can't do anything anymore

"How can this be the same?"

Lu Qiubo rolled his eyes at his granddaughter.

"If Gu Man has that strength, he will have to make up for it in the future. How can our Lin family marry their daughter so casually?" She whispered softly in Lin Caisang's ear.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang flattened his mouth and expressed that he understood.

But then she thought about it, when she got engaged to Zhou Liang, she didn't have any of these things, it was just a verbal exchange.

But think about it, Zhou Liang got engaged at that time, and Mrs. Zhou's eyes were on the top of her head. She thought that the Lin family was superior to the Zhou family, so how could she prepare anything.

However, it would be better for her not to say this.

Liu Baixiao's house.

Liu Yushui covered her stomach with one hand and bent over to dry something on the shelf. From the side, Liu Baixiao's sharp eyes glanced at her.

"What are you doing? You haven't had enough to eat or something, and you're so slow to cook the food?"

Seeing Liu Yushui dawdling there, he roared angrily, wishing he could pick up the stick on the side and hit her with it, beating this useless daughter to death so as not to stay at home and waste food.

However, thinking about the child in her belly, if it was really beaten and killed, the people in Yacun might use this matter to drive him out of the village. '6' '9' 's' 'h' 'u' 'x' 'l' 'c' 'o' 'm'

He had better endure his anger for a while. Anyway, the child is seven months old and will be born in a few months. If this stinky girl doesn't work hard by then, he will definitely not be polite to her!

When Liu Yushui heard his voice, her hand that was drying vegetables instinctively shook and she quickly speeded up.

"Hey, Yu Shui, why are you here..."

Outside the yard, Liu Rumei walked in with a hoe on her back. When she saw Liu Yushui working there, she hurriedly came over.

But when he saw Liu Baixiao sitting like an uncle in the yard, he stopped in time, quickly put down the hoe, and came to Liu Baixiao's side first.

"Hundred filial piety..."

"What's going on outside?" Liu Baixiao frowned and looked at her and asked.

"Aren't you asked to fetch water to water the vegetables? What kind of water can you fetch with a hoe? You are all a waste who refuses to do anything. If you are not more agile with your hands and feet, I will kick you out later. !"

"I....."

Hearing his words, Liu Rumei felt extremely aggrieved.

But what's the use of being wronged? It can fill your stomach or something, but it doesn't work at all.

"Baixiao, I was just about to tell you this. The small ponds in our village have bottomed out and we can no longer carry water. The vegetables in the fields are about to wither. How can you We have to find a way."

"What?"

Liu Baixiao's eyes widened immediately after hearing this.

"How could this happen? What do you do for food?"

"I...this has nothing to do with me. Didn't you see that I am always the first to fetch water, but there is nothing I can do if there is no water." Liu Rumei quickly explained.

"I heard from people in the village that this year's drought is particularly severe. It wasn't that hot in previous years, and the water didn't run out that early."

She looked at Liu Baixiao timidly and said.

I was thinking about getting some sweet potatoes to save so that she and her daughter could eat them.

But naturally after she was discovered stealing sweet potatoes for the first time, those people guarded their fields very strictly, and you could see people guarding them outside at night.

She couldn't do anything anymore.
