

Star of Space 693

Chapter 693 Courage is not bad

He cursed at Lin Baiyi.

However, he knew better that he was a weak scholar, while Lin Baiyi was a strong carpenter. If they really compared, it goes without saying that he would be the weaker one.

But he still has one advantage. He is Lin Baiyi's second brother. What can Lin Baiyi do to him?

"Mom, you said you won't let me help with Sangsang's engagement, so I won't help. But I really have something to do with Sangsang. Where is she? Ask her to meet me. I want Tell her face to face."

He had to speak clearly about water.

"Hmph, what can you do to Sangsang, and what kind of evil intentions do you have?" Lin Baiyi snorted coldly and asked Liu Baixiao.

"Lin Baiyi, have you ever talked to your second brother like this?"

Liu Baixiao glared at Lin Baiyi and roared bravely, relying on Lin Baiyi to do nothing to him in front of everyone.

"Mom, I really need to talk to Sangsang about something. Tell me where she is and I'll go find her."

...

"Brother Mo Lian, tell me, what can he do to me?"

In the main room, Lin Caisang was sitting in a corner, smiling and asking Ya Molian beside him.

"Besides that, is there anything else?" Ya Molian chuckled and asked her.

Liu Baixiao was a man who couldn't afford to get up early for no profit. He didn't come to see Sang'er before, but he happened to come to see Sang'er when the villagers wanted to use the water from Menghuang Mountain. Apart from this, he couldn't think of anything else.

"Oh, he really can think about it."

Lin Caisang raised the corners of her lips disdainfully and said.

Not to mention Liu Baixiao's family, every one of them had offended her. Even Brother Mo Lian's family and several other families who had good relations with the Lin family had to pay for water.

Yacun didn't want anyone to let go of this, and she had told everyone in her family.

"I'm afraid, Liu Baixiao may have thought more than just this little bit," Ya Molian said.

"Huh? What do you mean?"

After hearing his words, Lin Caisang narrowed her beautiful eyes and looked at him with some confusion, but the next moment, she understood the meaning of Ya Molian's words, and even laughed out loud.

"This is really a desperate act. Even I dare not touch the money, but he wants to put it into his own pocket without conscience. He is very courageous."

Turning her head, she glanced outside the main room, and then turned to look at Ya Molian.

"Tell me, if I really relent and let Liu Baixiao go to collect cash shamelessly, can he be kicked out of Yacun?"

If this plan really works, she will pretend that she can't stand Liu Baixiao's shameless pressure and let him make trouble. As long as everyone can gather their strength to drive him out of Yacun.

I wanted to keep their family under my nose before, but I was able to keep an eye on them because of the little family affection that remained in her grandfather's heart.

But now, this family is really giving her a headache, especially since Zhou Liang comes to see Liu Yushui every day. He has no intention of studying and is almost exhausted. He will definitely not pass the exam this year!

She doesn't want to care about where this family wants to go now.

"What do you think?" Ya Molian asked her.

"cannot."

Lin Caisang pursed her lips and shook her head.

Even if Liu Baixiao goes to collect money, he still uses her name. In the end, it will only be her who is not benefited. With Liu Baixiao's mouth that can point out the evil and the white, it is not easy to clear himself up. .
