Chapter 696 Teach her a lesson

"Mo Lian, if there's anything else you haven't done yet, tell Grandma Qiubo.

However, when Lu Qiubo heard what his granddaughter said, he took it seriously. He turned his attention to Ya Molian and asked.

Ya Molian pursed her lips and could only rack her brains to think about what Lu Qiubo needed to ask for advice. However, he had already ordered them to do whatever needed to be done and what could be done. Yes.

Now there are only dishes left at home for the banquet tomorrow, but there are people busy outside, so where is Lu Qiubo needed?

"Grandma Qiubo, Son'er and I were just discussing whether the banquet tomorrow will be full of meat and vegetables. Will these dishes be enough? Do we need to buy more?" he asked.

Otherwise, he really couldn't think of anything else.

"That's enough, how can it not be enough?" Lu Qiubo said quickly.

Which banquet in the village has eight meat dishes, and Yamolian's is the first one.

If this is not enough, what should we do? It is not a banquet for a wealthy family, and it is only an engagement now, not the time to get married yet.

Liu family.

Liu Baixiao came back angrily and kicked the closed courtyard door in. When people came in, they would not close the courtyard door again. Only Liu Rumei was left in the courtyard, lowering his head and washing. Where is Lao Caiye?

Seeing Liu Baixiao coming back with an angry look on his face, she knew that what Liu Baixiao wanted to do had not been accomplished. She lowered her head a little, fearing that he would take it out on her if he was upset.

She knew that it was not that easy to find Lin Caisang to do things. That girl was so powerful now.

"What are you doing there, you damn bitch? Didn't you see me coming back? Get me water quickly!" Liu Baixiao looked at Liu Rumei and saw that she was disheveled. He felt even more panicked and yelled at her. .

"Hey, okay, I'll get you some water right now."

Liu Rumei didn't dare to hesitate, stood up, wiped her hands on her clothes, and went to the kitchen to get water.

"This Lin Caisang is so capable. She still dares to hide from me. I am her second uncle!" Liu Baixiao sat down on the stool in the yard angrily and took a deep breath.

On the way back, he figured it out. Lin Caisang must have been at Yamolian's house just now. Otherwise, why would his mother, Lin Baiyi, and Lin Changfeng be there too? They must be accompanying Lin Caisang. Sang went there together.

However, Lin Caisang was clearly there, but she still dared to hide from him!

"Hmph, when I catch her the day after tomorrow, I have to teach her a lesson!"

Liu Rumei, who had just come out of the kitchen with a bowl of warm water, couldn't help but sneered when she heard his words.

He should teach Lin Caisang a lesson, and he would be thankful not to be taught a lesson by Lin Caisang. That girl Lin Caisang is now protected by Ya Molian.

When had she seen Lin Caisang and not followed Ya Molian in and out of company?

It was simply impossible to catch her alone. She had been thinking about Feng Luzhi for a long time, and finally gritted her teeth and decided that Ya Molian was here. Anyway, regarding Feng Luzhi, She is not the one who is in the wrong either.

"Hundred filial piety, water."

She handed the warm water to Liu Baixiao and continued to chop vegetables.

These old leaves have withered due to drought and lack of water. They will definitely not taste good if fried. If Liu Baixiao eats them, she will definitely be scolded and beaten.
