

Star of Space 701

Chapter 701 What if the child can't be born?

Moreover, it is impossible for me to have only one child. You can still give birth to children for me in the future.

"Ah."

Liu Yushui smiled sarcastically, slowly raised his eyelids, and stared at Zhou Liang.

"So, how many children do you want me to bear for you? And then you will send all the children I bear to you to the daughter of the county governor and call her mother, right?"

Unless she is stupid, she would do such a thankless thing!

So what if she can live a good life, as long as she has children by her side, she still can't live a good life with her wisdom.

Although she has had enough of the hard days in Yacun, if she was asked to choose between Zhou Liang and her child... maybe she would still choose Zhou Liang before.

But through these days, she had already seen Zhou Liang's true face clearly.

This man looks polite on the surface, but he is actually a scumbag on the inside!

Rather than follow him and live a 'good' life with no children despite having children, she might as well give birth to the child in her belly to support herself and cut off ties with the Zhou family!

"Isn't this the best way? In the future, your children can inherit our Zhou family's family business, and they can also call the county governor grandpa, Yu Shui. Then your face will be bright, and your Liu family will also be able to do it because of this child. , get involved with the county governor's house, don't you want this?"

Zhou Liang tempted Liu Yushui with benefits.

Liu Yushui is a person who can't stand hardship. In order to live a good life in the future, he will definitely agree to his method.

What's more, the child in Liu Yushui's belly belongs to Zhou Liang. Even if she doesn't agree, so what, he will still take the child back to Zhou's family. Liu Yushui cannot object or disagree no matter how much he wants to. of.

"laugh."

Liu Yushui sneered.

"Zhou Liang, do you really think I'm stupid? I can't tell the difference after just a few words from you?"

When had she, Liu Yushui, been so stupid? She had always been the one who lied to others and ordered others around. When did Zhou Liang, a shameless man, dare to come in front of her and coax her?

"you--"

Zhou Liang was shocked by her words and couldn't help but frown.

"Liu Yushui, you...don't toast or eat as a punishment. You have to know that even if you don't agree, as long as you give birth to the child, I can..."

"Then what if the child cannot be born?"

Before Zhou Liang could finish speaking, Liu Yushui slightly raised the corners of her lips and spoke to him calmly.

"you--"

This time, Zhou Liang was really frightened.

When the Sheriff's nine thousand gold son came to his mother in person to tell her about not having children, his mother had promised her that within a few months, a child would be held in her lap and called her Mother.

Otherwise, this marriage will not go so smoothly. If the child in Liu Yushui's belly is gone, then where can he find a child? How can this marriage be...

Should he be asked to find a wild child outside to inherit his Zhou family's business in the future?

"Yushui, you can't think too hard, this is your son."

He quickly spoke out to persuade.

"But after he is born, he will no longer be my son."

Liu Yushui smiled nervously, her eyes filled with evil light, and she stared at Zhou Liang without blinking.
