

Star of Space 702

Chapter 702 Nothing must happen!

"You are not my son, why should I give birth to him? Isn't it better to let him die now? Or, after I give birth to him, I will strangle him to death. Zhou Liang, What do you think of my idea?"

"you--"

Zhou Liang never thought that Liu Yushui would be so cruel.

What was in her belly was her biological son who could only be born after ten months of pregnancy. She could actually say that she wanted to strangle her biological son to death.

"Don't be impulsive. Don't be impulsive."

"Impulsive? How could it be?"

Liu Yushui chuckled and stretched out his hand to touch his belly.

"Zhou Liang, go tell your bitch mother that if you want me to give birth to this child to your family, bring me five hundred taels of silver now. I will see the money tomorrow. Otherwise, you will not be able to give birth to this child." There is no need to take medicine, as long as I touch my stomach to the corner of the table, this child may be gone! "

"you....."

Zhou Liang opened his mouth, but nothing came out.

He never dreamed that just saying this, which was obviously a good idea, would make Liu Yushui turn against him, and even make Liu Yushui not want the child in his belly.

"Yushui, five hundred taels of silver is really too much. Where can my family get it at the moment?"

Their family is not in business, so how can they get so much cash? Even if they want to sell his mother's dowry, it will take time. They will do it tomorrow. How can he have the ability?

"If your family can't take it out, why can't the county magistrate's office take it out?" Liu Yushui asked him.

"Is my son given to you for free? If that bitch wants to take my son as her own, doesn't she need to pay some money?"

Anyway, she was going to settle for these five hundred taels of silver!

She also felt that five hundred taels of silver was going to be too little. In the future, she would leave Yacun and live with her son. How many things would a newborn baby need, and she would have to be by her side every day?

Even though she had never given birth to a son before, she had seen how other families raised children.

Anyway, money is needed everywhere!

"Then...then the day after tomorrow, how about I bring the money the day after tomorrow?" Zhou Liang thought about it and felt that this deal was okay.

In the past, he thought it would be good to let Liu Yushui continue to follow him, but seeing Liu Yushui bite him like a madman today made him feel that this woman was really terrible.

There are a lot of gentle women in the county. He has no worries about finding a woman who can bear children for him. Five hundred taels of silver to buy a marriage with the county governor is still worth it.

However, he naturally did not dare to actually ask for the five hundred taels of silver from the county magistrate's mansion. He could only delay it for a while and let his mother take it out quickly.

"Okay, the day after tomorrow!"

Liu Yushui nodded, she didn't miss the day.

"Then...then I'll leave first."

Zhou Liang did not dare to delay any longer and was ready to leave directly. He quickly went home to discuss the matter with his mother.

"Zhou Liang, if I don't see any money at this time the day after tomorrow, you can go find someone else to have a son."

Just when he was about to lift his feet, he heard Liu Yushui's cold reminder. He stopped immediately and looked at her in disbelief.

"you--"

He also thought that if he couldn't raise the money the day after tomorrow, it would be delayed for a few more days, but he didn't expect Liu Yushui to be so ruthless!

"Okay, the day after tomorrow is the day after tomorrow. I will bring the money at this time the day after tomorrow. Remember, nothing will happen to my son!" He gritted his teeth and said to Liu Yushui.
