

Star of Space 710

Chapter 710 It's easier

Seeing Lin Laogan and the others heaving a sigh of relief when they heard the woman's voice announcing the good news, she felt like the world was spinning.

What hope does she have in this Ya Village in the future? Lin Caisang will deliver the baby. Those women in the village who want to give birth must be the first to go to Lin Caisang.

Because Lin Caisang even saved Liu Yushui's premature baby, and she...

In their eyes, he became a desperate person.

Originally, she wanted to be arrogant and take advantage of this moment to show off her own worth, but little did she know that she would just lift a stone and hit her on the foot, making her foot bloody!

In the end, Liu Yushui successfully gave birth to two daughters. Because she was born two months prematurely, she was very weak. Lying next to her, she didn't even have the strength to cry, and her eyes were closed and her breath was weak.

"Brother, go to your house, catch a hen, kill it, stew it and bring it over."

In the yard, all the people who came to watch the excitement have left, and only the Lin family is left. Lin Caisang explained to his eldest brother.

"good."

Lin Changhong didn't care so much at this time. Although Liu Yushui was hateful, he looked really pitiful at this moment.

"Sang Sang, let me go with Chang Hong."

Yang Lin looked at Lin Caisang, said something, and followed Lin Changhong, pushing Lin Laogong away.

Lu Qiubo, on the other hand, was cleaning up the house that Liu Baixiao and Liu Rumei had made a mess. He picked up all the clothes on the ground and put them away. Lin Baiyi and the others also tidied up together.

"Brother Mo Lian, tell Ban Jue to send someone to keep an eye on Liu Qingshui and don't let him escape again." She and Ya Mo Lian were the only ones left in the yard, and she said to him.

"I've already given the order." Ya Molian said.

"Are you going to capture Liu Baixiao? He has not left Qianlin County yet."

"Um?"

Lin Caisang was stunned for a moment.

Even after reacting casually, it seemed that Yamolian had sent people to keep an eye on this family early in the morning, so she knew where Liu Baixiao had gone.

"No, just run away. He ran away... It saves trouble." She glanced at the yard. Although there was no one there, Lu Qiubo and the others were still cleaning up a few rooms, so she could only lower her voice.

If Liu Baixiao is caught, he will at most be punished. Now that Liu Yushui and the two children are safe, who can do anything to Liu Baixiao?

If he returns home, he will continue to be domineering. The two children she finally saved may be left half dead by Liu Baixiao.

"Then let him go." Ya Molian said.

Naturally, people still have to be watched, but Liu Baixiao will not be allowed to return to Yacun so easily.

"Where's Liu Rumei?" Lin Caisang asked him.

Since someone has been keeping an eye on the Liu family, they must know where Liu Rumei went, right?

"She should have run away one step ahead of Liu Baixiao." Ya Molian replied.

"should?"

Lin Caisang frowned.

"Exiled Jue only sent two people to keep an eye on the Liu family. Previously, Liu Qingshui left with a few people, and one person had already gone to keep an eye on them. Then Liu Baixiao went out again... Liu Rumei was at home, so no one was keeping an eye on them."

Ya Molian explained.

"However, there was a woman who was looking at the crops near Liu's house. She heard the screams that Liu Baixiao made when he hit Liu Rumei. She said that not long after Liu Baixiao went out, Liu Rumei left with a big baggage on her back. "

Hearing this, Lin Caisang understood.
