Chapter 719 If you run away, just run away.

That way, she can prepare everything she wants to prepare.

"Stay with me these days. In a few days, it will be difficult for you and me to see each other." Ya Molian looked at her and said.

When Weiguo gets here, even if he has to go back and forth, it will not take more than ten days and a half.

And since he has decided to go back to seek justice for these years, he cannot let people over there know that he has people who can influence him here. Otherwise, the consequences will be disastrous and he will definitely bring trouble to Sonny. .

"good."

Lin Caisang naturally responded.

...

At Liu Baixiao's house, the pale Liu Yushui struggled to get up from the bed, took a long piece of cloth, folded several pieces of clothing on top, and then tied it to his stomach.

The fact that she had given birth to a child must not be known to Zhou Liang, because she had to get all the money she had threatened Zhou Liang to get in her own hands.

She was wrong before, blindly thinking that as long as she married into the Zhou family, it would be the best destination for her.

Ever since Lin Caisang saved her regardless of previous suspicions and helped her give birth to two lovely daughters, she had been lying in bed for the past two nights and had already figured it out.

All wealth and splendor are fake, only the people around you are the most real.

Now her father ran away and her mother ran away, taking away all her beautiful clothes. From then on, she only had two daughters left by her side.

"Just run away."

Such heartless, cold-blooded parents are worse than nothing, and worse than her brother Lin Chushui, who has no blood relationship with her.

After giving birth to the child, no one in the village wanted to pay attention to her. Only Lin Chushui sent some food and helped her take care of the child, boiled hot water for her, and washed the child's diapers.

Although she didn't know if he did this to block the people in the village, but just because he was willing to help her, she would be grateful to Lin Chushui for the rest of her life.

In fact, she always knew that Lin Chushui was not born by her mother, because when Lin Chushui heard her mother say those words, she also heard it, and saw Lin Chushui hiding in the corner and eavesdropping.

But at that time, she was not as bad as when she grew up. She just thought that Lin Chushui was just a child, and it would be okay to be bullied a few times by her. But if her mother really knew that Lin Chushui was eavesdropping, with the temperament of her mother and her grandfather, , it must have killed him.

At that time, I was still innocent and didn't dare to harm others.

Looking back now, when did she start to be so vicious and scheming? It was after meeting Zhou Liang, and it seemed that she became like this under Zhou Liang's step-by-step temptation.

"Zhou Liang, just continue to be the villain you are."

She chuckled softly and prepared to get the money she deserved.

"My dear daughters, please sleep well. Mom will get the money back and then come back to take care of you."

She hid the clothes in her belly tightly, raised her hand to touch it, and she really looked like she was ten months pregnant, so she went out.

...

In the small bamboo forest, Zhou Liang was already there, gritting his teeth and clasping his hands, waiting for Liu Yushui to appear.

"Zhou Liang, have you brought the money?"

Pretending to walk in the same way as when she was pregnant, Liu Yushui came to Zhou Liang and asked him coldly.
