Chapter 721 It's a complete break

He was fine the day before yesterday, but why was his son gone just two days later?

"What did I do to your son? How could you ask, Zhou Liang? When you ran away like a dog with your tail between your legs the day before yesterday, why didn't you think that I was pregnant with your son? You still have the shame now. Come to question me?"

Liu Yushui asked him back.

"you....."

Zhou Liang had a bad breath stuck in his throat and thought of Liu Baixiao.

"It's your father, right? Your father harmed my son? I'm going to the county government to sue him!"

he roared.

"Okay, you go, it's best to go now, let everyone in Qianlin County know what kind of bastard you Zhou Liang is, let your Zhou family get out of Qianlin County from now on, and you will never be ashamed again. return!"

Liu Yushui said to him.

"you--"

Zhou Liang took a deep breath.

Liu Yushui's words were like strangling his throat, making him unable to breathe.

He is now about to attend the Qiu Wei Festival. If the affair between himself and Liu Yushui comes out, his future will be ruined. He cannot afford to take this risk.

"Since you have no children, why do you still come to me to ask for money?" he asked Liu Yushui.

"I've been with you for so long, what's wrong with asking for this little money? I still think you gave me too little." Liu Yushui looked at him with a chuckle and said.

"Zhou Liang, a scum like you doesn't deserve to be a father. Just spend your whole life with your fiancée who won't give you children. I don't want to see you again in my life!"

After saying that, she endured the pain in her body and turned around to go home.

...

On the deserted mountain.

Although he agreed to accompany Ya Molian, he still needed to prepare many things for Ya Molian.

Although these days were spent at Ya Molian's house, there was really very little time when Ya Molian could actually say a few words to her. Most of the time, Lin Caisang was waiting for her medicinal materials.

Yamolian quietly watched by her side and accompanied her.

"Liu Qingshui has been taken away." He said to Lin Caisang.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang turned back to look at him and took a deep breath.

"It's good that he was taken away, and it takes one less thing off my mind."

If Liu Qingshui was still here, he would inevitably cause a lot of trouble because of his enlistment. If he really became a deserter, it would not only cause trouble for Liu Yushui, mother and daughter, but also bring discredit to the village.

"Yesterday, Liu Yushui and Zhou Liang met again in the bamboo forest." Ya Molian said again.

"ah?"

This time, Lin Caisang was really surprised.

The banishment decision has been investigated. It was because Zhou Liang was getting married to the daughter of the county governor's family, so he had to break off the relationship with Liu Yushui quickly.

She guessed that this might be the reason why Liu Yushui would give birth prematurely. How could Liu Yushui, such a scumbag, still go to see him? How is Zhou Liang so confused?

"According to what Ban Jue said, Liu Yushui asked Zhou Liang for fifty taels of silver. It seems that the two have completely broken up." Ya Molian said.

"I guess Liu Yushui still has some brains." Lin Caisang curled his lips and said.

As for Zhou Liang, there is no need for anyone else to deal with him now. The nine thousand gold man in the governor's mansion alone can make the Zhou family never have peace.

Ban Wu has already gone to investigate. It is said that the nine thousand gold man in the county magistrate's mansion had an affair with someone and was pregnant with a child. The magistrate beat his daughter in anger, and she miscarried.
