Chapter 722 It Depends on What You Do

Afterwards, the doctor asserted that the man with nine thousand gold would never be able to have children again.

And since it was a scandal after all for the woman in the boudoir to have an affair with someone else, the county magistrate naturally wanted to cover it up, so he thought of marrying off this daughter who had ruined the family tradition as soon as possible, so he chose the grandson of Old Master Zhou's family.

That is Zhou Liang.

Thinking of this, she really laughed. It was said that the nine-thousand-gold man from the county governor's mansion had a fierce personality and could not bear any grievance. He was also arrogant and unreasonable. He hit, scolded and even killed his servants. .

It is wonderful that such a girl is about to become Zhou Liang's wife.

"By the way, Brother Mo Lian, I heard that Shaohua City is very cold. Can you handle it here?" Suddenly, Lin Caisang thought of the climate in Shaohua City that he had heard them mention before, and turned around. Ask Ya Molian.

Shaohua City is located in an extremely cold place. Even in the scorching summer, it is chilly to the bones at night.

As for the poison on Yamolian's body, he should not be exposed to too much cold weather. How could he survive it after going to Shaohua City? Will the poison on his body relapse?

"It's okay, Shaohua City is still hot now." Ya Molian said.

However, Lin Caisang still frowned.

The hot weather now does not mean that the weather will still be like this in another month or two. What if... How could Ya Molian's body withstand the situation?

She couldn't even think about it, what would happen if Ya Molian had a poisonous attack in Shaohua City? She is far away in Yecheng. As the saying goes, water from afar cannot quench the thirst of the near. What's more, she can't be in Yecheng all the time. What if she meets her to go on a mission?

"Where's Jiang Zuo? Will he go back with you?" she asked Ya Molian.

"Jiang Zuo, yes."

Ya Molian nodded.

Jiang Zuo is now a subordinate of his Jiulian Palace, so naturally he can go back with him.

It's just that originally he wanted to keep Jiang Zuo and take care of Sonny, but now that Sonny asked this, it was obvious that he wanted Jiang Zuo to go with him, so he might as well take Jiang Zuo with him.

Also, if Jiang Zuo is left here, he will definitely be staring at Son'er every day and wanting to see Sui Ziyou. He should take this trouble away with him.

"Then you ask Jiang Zuo to see me, and I will give him the method of treating pain with golden needles." Lin Caisang said immediately.

Not long after, Jiang Zuo, who had been sent to a place not far away to raise silkworms, rushed back without stopping and came to Menghuang Mountain happily.

"Palace Master, Mistress."

After he saluted breathlessly, he looked at Lin Caisang.

"Mother, how are you these days?" he asked.

Lin Caisang: "..."

She asked Brother Mo Lian to get this guy back, not just so that he could ask Sui Ziyou!

"Ahem, whether Ziyou is okay or not depends on what you do."

With a slight cough, she decided to torture Jiang Zuo first so that Ya Molian would not be tortured by the poison on her body in Shaohua City.

"ah?"

Jiang Zuo was stunned by what Lin Caisang said.

"Mistress...Palace Master, mistress, what do you mean?" He looked at his palace master and asked.

"You don't need to look at your palace master. It's me who came to you today. If I hadn't shown mercy and asked your palace master to call you back, you would have stayed in that place and raised your silkworms for the rest of your life." Lin Caisang Drawing Jiang Zuo's attention back to her.

"Mother..."

Jiang Zuo didn't understand what Lin Caisang wanted to say at all.
